SEC EQUESTRIAN TEAMS CONCLUDE FALL SLATES

The equestrian programs of the Southeastern Conference conclude their fall slates this weekend with a plethora of competitions across the country. The highlight of this week's schedule includes top-ranked South Carolina traveling to face No. 4 Texas A&M in Bryan, Texas, on Friday.

In other SEC action this week, Georgia travels to Brookings, S.D., to face host South Dakota State and No. 9 New Mexico State on Friday and Saturday. South Carolina travels to No. 8 Baylor on Saturday, and then wraps up its fall schedule on Sunday by traveling to No. 10 SMU.

The four SEC equestrian programs remain the top-four teams in the nation, according to the latest NCEA Coaches Poll, which was released on Wednesday. The Gamecocks are ranked No. 1 nationally for the first time since 2009, while Auburn checks in at No. 2. Georgia is the nation's third-ranked squad, while Texas A&M is No. 4 in the latest poll.

Following this weekend's competitions, the four programs of the SEC will break from competition until late January. The 2013 SEC Equestrian Championships are slated for March 29-30, 2013 in Auburn, Ala.

SEC EQUESTRIAN QUICK NOTES

• At the SEC Spring Meetings in Destin, Fla., this past June, the decision was made for equestrian to become the conference's 21st sport and the first to be added to the league since softball in 1997.

• Legislative action, which took place during the SEC Spring Meetings in Destin, was necessary to allow for the addition of equestrian. Previously, one-third of league institutions would need to sponsor a sport in order for the conference to hold a championship event in that sport. With 12 members, that number was previous four institutions. With the addition of Missouri and Texas A&M, the new legislation will allow that number to remain at four for the sponsoring of new sports.

• Four members of the SEC - Auburn, Georgia, South Carolina and Texas A&M - currently sponsor equestrian. The four current members of the SEC are the only teams in the history of the sport to win NCEA Overall Team National Championships.

• Georgia has tallied a league-leading five overall national championships, including three consecutive from 2008-10. Auburn, South Carolina and Texas A&M each have two overall national titles to their credit.

• Auburn University has been selected to play host to the inaugural Southeastern Conference equestrian championship. The event will take place March 29-30, 2013 at the Auburn University Horse Center.

• Texas A&M is the defending NCEA overall team national champion and has won four consecutive NCEA western championships.

• The three schools of the formerly 12-member SEC have been contesting a yearly Southern Equestrian Championship since 2003, which in 2012-13 will be replaced by the first-ever SEC Championship, involving all four schools.

• The Southern Equestrian Championships were held on campus sites on a rotating basis. Georgia won a league-leading six Southern Equestrian Championship titles, while Auburn captured three and South Carolina one.

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

SETTING THE STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 79-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2011-12 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured nine national titles and seven national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in football, gymnastics, women's tennis and men's indoor track & field. Since 1990, the SEC has won 149 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

Alabama won the SEC's first national title of the year with its win in the BCS National Championship Game in football. It is the SEC's sixth consecutive football national title. Alabama won its second consecutive gymnastics title and fifth overall while the women's golf team won its first national championship. The Crimson Tide softball team brought home the SEC's first national title in the sport of softball. Florida won its third consecutive national title in men's indoor track & field while the Gators' women's tennis team captured its second consecutive national championship.Florida's men's and LSU's women's outdoor track teams also brought home national championships.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 12 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 14 of the 20 sports.

Nine SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Alabama and LSU meeting in the BCS National Title Game. Four men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament with Kentucky cutting down the nets and eight women's basketball teams were also invited to the NCAA Tournament. The SEC had eight teams advance to postseason play in baseball with Arkansas, Florida and South Carolina advancing to the College World Series.

With 146 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the nine team championships, 43 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 444 individuals were awarded with First- Team All-America Honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with more than 2,500 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, nine SEC schools placed in the top 40 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a second-place finish. LSU placed 13th while Georgia was 18th; Arkansas finished 20th, Alabama 23rd, Auburn 28th, Kentucky 29th, Tennessee 33rd and South Carolina 36th to round out the league's top-40 finishes.

BROOKINGS, S.D. – The No. 1 Texas A&M equestrian team got off to a strong start for the 2012-13 season with a 15-5 win in the opener at South Dakota State on Saturday.

The Aggies swept the fences competition, 5-0, and downed the Jackrabbits, 4-1 in horsemanship for an early lead, as the events were held at the same time. Shelby Lawson, Kori Pickett, Kat Barkema, Emily Williams and Leah Chenelle each outscored their opponents by nine points or more in the strong over fences showing. Barkema took her second-ever MVP in that discipline.

In horsemanship, the Aggies took an early 3-0 jump on the Jackrabbits with wins by Amanda Brightwell, Molli Jacobs and Cassie Mantor, before Laura Brainard dropped a 69-66.5 decision to SDSU's Kelsey Champagne. A Carey Nowacek victory sealed the deal, however, and horsemanship took an easy 4-1 win. Jacobs earned her career first MVP award with the ride.

With A&M striding to a 9-1 lead after fences and horsemanship, equitation on the flat and reining got underway simultaneously. Each discipline ended with a 3-2 A&M victory after close competitions.

Paige Russell secured a three-point victory over SDSU's Santana Wright on the flat before Kelsi Shevlin fell to flat MVP Lauren Kerr, 78-76. Emily Williams rode to a 10-point win as the Aggies ended the first round of flat ahead 2-1.

South Dakota State tied things up on the flat, 2-2, when Jackrabbit rider Megan Violand defeated Haley Buchmiller, 66-58, but A&M's Ellie Wilkins eked out a 69-68 win over Megan Shiffman and the Aggies secured a 3-2 win on the flat.

On the reining side, Emma Myers took a 70.5-67 win and was followed by Lindsey Bernbaum and Laura Sumrall who each came out of their rides with victories. South Dakota State took the final two rides, over Aggies Ashley Skold and Becca Murray, but the damage had already been done and A&M swept the four disciplines after a 3-2 reining win.

BLYTHEWOOD, S.C. - No. 4 South Carolina officially began the SEC era on Saturday, as the Gamecocks defeated No. 5 Oklahoma State, 13-7. The Gamecocks are now 1-0 on the 2012-2013 season, while the Cowgirls fall to 0-2.

The Gamecocks took an early lead as Carolina's reiners took three of five points from the Cowgirls. Sophomore Layla Choate scored South Carolina's first point of the season as she scored an event-high 73.5 to defeat the Cowgirls' Erin Willoughby. Fellow sophomore Cody McMillion followed Choate with a 69-61.5 win over Justine Peters, and senior captain Audrey Jewell scored the third point with a win over Taylor New.

Carolina took command of Saturday's meet as both teams moved down to the lower ring to compete in Equitation Over Fences. Freshman Sally Henry made the most of her Gamecock debut, winning her point with an event-high score of 88. Henry was named Most Outstanding Player for the event as she helped lead the jumpers to a 5-0 sweep over OK-State.

2012 All-American Katherine Schmidt began her 2-for-2 day with an 85-40 victory, followed up by redshirt freshman Samantha Smith, who made her Gamecock debut with a three-point victory over her Cowgirl opponent. Senior Kimberly McCormack and redshirt sophomore Amber Henter both posted back-to-back scores of 87, as both riders edged their Oklahoma State opponents.

In Horsemanship, junior Katie Kopf and sophomore Sam Chiodo scored points for the Gamecocks. Kopf's score of 79 is the highest Horsemanship score by a Gamecock in at least the last four seasons, as she edged the Cowgirls' Lauren Halvorson, who scored 76.5. Chiodo scored the second-highest score of the event and the highest Horsemanship score by a sophomore in at least four seasons as she dropped Oklahoma State's Marissa Dalton, 78.5-77.

Up 10-5, the Gamecocks wasted no time shutting the door on the Cowgirls, as Schmidt completed her two-point day with a 77-64 win, giving Carolina its 11th point of the meet, eliminating any possibility of an OK-State comeback.

BLYTHEWOOD, S.C. - Competing in its first-ever Southeastern Conference equestrian meet on Thursday, No. 2 South Carolina edged out third-ranked Auburn, 10-9, at One Wood Farm in Blythewood. The Gamecocks are now 2-0 overall with a 1-0 record in SEC play, while the Tigers fall to 1-1 and 0-1 in the conference.

South Carolina jumped out to an early 3-2 lead on Thursday, the Gamecock reining team put on a dominating performance. Senior captain Audrey Jewell scored the first point with a 69-67.5 victory over Auburn's Cheyenne Cracraft, setting the tone for a meet in which South Carolina trailed only once, and that was for 2.5 minutes. Sophomore Layla Choate scored the second point of the meet, as she defeated the Tigers' Stephanie Rucci, 71.5-71. After Auburn won the next to points to tie the score at 4-4, sophomore Cody McMillion reclaimed the lead for the Gamecocks as she picked up a 71-69 win over Hailey Munger.

Holding a one-point lead, Thursday's meet moved down to the jumping ring, where South Carolina and Auburn each claimed two points. Auburn won the first point of the event, followed by a no-decision as redshirt freshman Samantha Smith held Auburn's Griffin Knight to an 80-80 tie, meaning neither team won the point. Auburn won the next point to give the Tigers their first and only lead of the meet of 4-3, but the lead evaporated as freshman Sally Henry and redshirt sophomore Amber Henter combined to win their rides by 20-points. Henry delivered a ten-point victory over Auburn's Christina Lin to the meet at 4-4, and the Gamecocks reclaimed the lead a few minutes later when Henter, South Carolina's Hunt Seat team captain, dropped the Tigers' Megan Bifano by ten points.

In Equitation on the Flat, the Gamecocks won three of five points as Henry completed her 2-for-2 day with a 12-point victory over Claire Connaghan. Senior Kimberly McCormack followed Henry with a 14-point win over the Tigers' Jennifer Delman. Junior Kelsey Hart's 75-73 win over Lin gave the Gamecocks a critical late point in Thursday's meet, and secured a 5-4 win for the Hunt Seat team, now 2-0 on the season.

In Horsemanship, Auburn won three of five points, but that would not be enough to take the lead.

After the Tigers won the first point, redshirt Johnna Letchworth picked up her first win of the season with a half-point victory over Auburn's Katsy Leeman, giving the Gamecocks an 8-6 lead. Hart's victory over Lin in Equitation on the Flat extend Carolina's lead to 9-6, with Auburn still in contention for a comeback win.

The Tigers' hopes were dashed moments after Hart's win, as sophomore Sam Chiodo picked up a 75.5-71 victory over Griffin Knight, giving South Carolina its tenth point of the meet and securing the win for the Gamecocks.

With the meet already decided, the Tigers won the remaining three points, as the Gamecocks are off to a 2-0 start for the second straight season.
