SEC ANNOUNCES BASEBALL LEGENDS
Presented by AT&T

Birmingham, Ala. – Featuring former standouts from Southeastern Conference member institutions, the SEC Baseball Legends Presented by AT&T will be honored at the 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament May 21-26 at the Hoover Met in Hoover, Ala.

"The SEC Baseball Legends Presented by AT&T allows us to honor the deep tradition and history of baseball in our league and show why the SEC is the nation's premier baseball conference," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive. "We are grateful to our friends at AT&T for helping to continue to make this program possible."

The 2013 class features Hal Baird, Auburn; Terry Shumpert, Kentucky; Skip Bertman, LSU; and Gene McArtor, Missouri. Four legends will be recognized each year, with representatives from Ole Miss, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee set to be honored in 2014. The inaugural class in 2013 included: Dr. Jeffrey Laubenthal, Alabama; Kevin McReynolds, Arkansas; Brad Wilkerson, Florida and Rev. Reggie Andrews, Georgia.

"AT&T is excited to be part of the SEC Baseball Legends program. Our presenting sponsorship further solidifies our relationship with and commitment to the Southeastern Conference" said Jamie Kerr, Director, AT&T Corporate Sponsorships. "We couldn't be happier to support the conference in honoring these legendary coaches and former student-athletes for their successes on and off the playing field."

Each SEC Baseball Legend will have on-field recognition and awards presentation by Commissioner Slive on Saturday, May 25, during the semifinals of the SEC Tournament. Fans will have an opportunity for autographs and photos with the honorees at the AT&T Legends Pavilion immediately following. The Legends will also participate in the annual SEC Youth Clinic on Friday morning.

Video elements highlighting the 2013 SEC Baseball Legends Presented by AT&T will be shown on the videoboard at the Hoover Met throughout the entire SEC Baseball Tournament.

2013 SEC Baseball Legends – Presented by AT&T

Auburn – Hal Baird, Head Coach, 1986-2000
Hal Baird was the head coach at Auburn from 1985-2000 and is the all-time winningest coach in school history having guided the Tigers to a 634-328 (.659) record during his 16 seasons on the Plains. Twice he led the Tigers to 50-wins seasons (1995 & 1997), while also taking the Tigers to the College World Series in both 1994 and 1997. A fixture in the Auburn dugout, Baird left an indelible mark on the Auburn baseball program. In his final seven seasons alone, Baird guided the Tigers to three NCAA Regional titles, an SEC Western Division Championship and an SEC Tournament Championship and 10 times during Baird's stay did his teams finish the season ranked in the top 25. Baird's teams won at least 30 games in every season he was the head coach and the program participated in nine NCAA Regionals during his stay, including seven in his last eight years at Auburn. During the 1990's, Baird's teams won 68.1 percent of their games, the 21st-winningest program in the decade. Ten Auburn players earned All-America honors under Baird's tutelage while a total of 51 players were drafted off of Baird's teams, which included Gregg Olson, Frank Thomas and Tim Hudson.

Kentucky – Terry Shumpert, Second Base, 1985-87
A three-year starter in the middle infield for coach Keith Madison's club, Shumpert was a two-time first-team All-SEC selection (1986-87) and earned All-America honors at second base in 1987. The native of Paducah, Ky., also earned SEC All-Tournament Team honors in 1987. Shumpert led the Wildcats in batting average, at bats, hits, runs, doubles and stolen bases in both 1986 and 1987. As a junior, he hit .376 with 19 doubles, four triples, nine homers and 32 steals. His .376 batting average in 1987 ranks as the 11th-best mark in school history while he ranks sixth (1987; 32) and eighth (1988; 28) on the UK single-season steals list. Following his junior season he was picked in the second round of the 1987 MLB Draft by the Kansas City Royals, going No. 41 overall. During his 14-year MLB career, he hit .252 during in 854 games, with 49 homers, 223 RBI and 85 steals, playing for the Royals, Boston Red Sox, Chicago Cubs, San Diego Padres, Colorado Rockies and Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

LSU – Skip Bertman, Head Coach, 1984-2001
Bertman directed the LSU baseball team to five College World Series titles and a sterling 870-330-3 mark (.724) in 18 seasons (1984-2001), giving him the highest all-time winning percentage among SEC coaches. Bertman is one of only three coaches in NCAA history to win five national championships. In addition to the five national championships, Bertman's LSU teams also claimed seven SEC championships 11 CWS berths and six SEC Tournament titles. Bertman's jersey #15 has been retired by LSU, and the street in front of the original Alex Box Stadium was re-named Skip Bertman Drive. During Bertman's tenure at LSU, more than 100 players were drafted into professional baseball, with 41 Tigers reaching the major leagues. He also coached 11 LSU first-team All-Americans. Bertman was also an accomplished international coach, serving as pitching coach on the 1988 United States gold-medal squad, then leading the USA as head coach to the bronze medal at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta. On January 19, 2001, the LSU Board of Supervisors unanimously approved LSU Chancellor Mark Emmert's selection of Bertman as the school's athletics director. As athletics director from 2001-08, Bertman supervised a highly successful 20-sport program. With a diverse and talented coaching staff as well as some of the best facilities in the nation, Bertman enhanced LSU's status as one of the best athletics programs in the country.

Missouri – Gene McArtor, First Base, 1961-63; Head Coach 1974-94
As a player at Missouri, McArtor won all-conference and all-district honors as a first baseman from 1961-63. He played on two Big Eight Conference championship teams and two squads which advanced to the College World Series. He served as team captain as a senior. He returned to MU as assistant baseball coach in 1969 after coaching and teaching at the high school level in his hometown, St. Louis. McArtor served in that role until 1974 when he succeeded John "Hi" Simmons as the Tigers' head coach. During his 21 years at the helm, McArtor compiled a 733-430-3 record and won Big Eight championships in 1976 and 1980. He guided six teams to the NCAA Tournament and coached 13 All-Americans and 41 all-conference players. McArtor served on the NCAA Baseball Committee from 1987-92, including two years as chairman, during a period of unprecedented growth for the CWS. Former president of the American Baseball Coaches Association, McArtor is a member of the ABCA Hall of Fame, the Webster Groves High School Hall of Fame and the St. Louis Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame. Since retiring as baseball coach, he served MU as director of project management and was the interim director of athletics for several months in 1998. McArtor currently works with the NCAA as an umpire coordinator.

2013 SEC TOURNAMENT

May 21-26• Hoover Metropolitan Stadium • Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament returns for a 16th straight year to the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium in the south-Birmingham city of Hoover, Ala., May 21-26

The 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament will increase to from 10 to 12 teams and will remain set to begin on Tuesday, May 21. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday. The tournament will return to single elimination play on Saturday. The total number of games played will not change, remaining at 17.
The 12 teams are seeded 1-12 with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions plus 10 at-large bids seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.
Last season, Mississippi State defeated Vanderbilt 3-0 in front of 12,526 fans and a national television audience on ESPN2 to claim SEC Tournament title.

The Hoover Met formerly served as home of the Double-A Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox) of the Southern League. The stadium also has served as host of the NCAA Men's Soccer Final Four, as well as home to the nationally renowned Hoover Buccaneer high school football program.

Located eight miles south of Birmingham, Regions Park seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate over 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005 and a second-level pressbox expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $6 million renovation project. A new HD video scoreboard was added in 2008, while the SEC introduced the nation to a 'pitch clock' in 2010. A new sound systems and concourse amenities such as refurbished restrooms big screen HDTVs at concessions stands were added in 2012.

The 2012 SEC Baseball Tournament drew 129,112 fans to The Hoover Met, a new record-high for the event. Seven times in the last 10 years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance.
The SEC is currently scheduled to keep its baseball tournament in Hoover at The Hoover Met through 2016 under the current contract.

All games of the tournament have been televised in high definition since 2008, with ESPN set to broadcast the championship game nationally for the fourth straight year in 2013.

Pitcher Notes: Taylor Guilbeau appeared in the first game of the series, where he threw three scoreless and hitless innings in relief of Spencer Turnbull … Guilbeau recorded four strikeouts and walked one … Turnbull suffered his first loss during SEC play after moving back to the game 1 starting role, he allowed 10 runs (nine earned) on 10 hits with two walks and three strikeouts in five innings … Turnbull's ERA during league play jumped from 1.00 to 2.52, and his season ERA went from 2.26 to 3.28 for the year after his start … Ray Castillo allowed two runs on four hits with three walks and two strikeouts in game two of the doubleheader … Castillo suffered his first blown save of the season and took the loss to drop to 2-2 on the year … Castillo is 8-for-9 in save opportunities this season … Jon Keller appeared in two games of the series, recording 4.1 innings, allowing one earned run on four hits with two walks and four strikeouts … the only run Keller allowed was the game-winning run in the 11th inning in the series finale to get the loss, he is now 3-6 on the season … Charley Sullivan tossed 6.1 innings in game two of the series, allowing three runs on eight hits for his sixth quality start of the season … Sullivan is 4-4 with a 3.36 ERA in a team-high 72.1 innings pitched, he also leads the club with 64 strikeouts. Position Player Notes: Mikey White hit .308 (4-for-13) in the series against Mississippi State, and recorded three of his four hits in the series finale on Sunday … White hit a three-run home run in the fifth inning of game three, it was the first of his career … White matched Austen Smith for team-high honors with four RBI in the series … Smith clubbed a pair of home runs in the Saturday doubleheader, hitting one in each game, and he now leads the team with five home runs this season … Smith, who led the Tide with four runs scored in the MSU series, was 5-for-14 (.357) with a double for a .857 slugging percentage against the Bulldogs … Brett Booth paced the Tide with a .400 (4-for-10) average in the series, and added two walks and was hit by a pitch for a .538 on-base percentage against MSU … Booth leads the team with 25 walks and 36 runs scored, is second with four home runs and fourth with 26 RBI … Andrew Miller was 3-for-10 in the series with three walks and two runs scored … Steven Cole started the final two games of the series as the designated hitter, going 2-for-8 (.250) with three runs scored … the start marked the second and third of the season for Cole, who had not started a game since Feb. 16, against VMI.

ARKANSAS Razorbacks

The No. 14 Arkansas baseball team went 3-1 on the week, defeating Missouri State in a midweek game on Tuesday and taking two of three games at No. 23 Kentucky over the weekend. The Razorbacks are now 32-16 overall and 15-8 in Southeastern Conference play. Arkansas has won six of its first eight conference series for the first time since the 2007 season. The Razorbacks have won all four of their SEC road series so far this season and are 9-2 on the road in league play. The Arkansas pitching staff compiled a 2.02 ERA on the week. Barrett Astin and Ryne Stanek each earned victories in the Razorbacks' series win at Kentucky. Astin gave up one run on five hits and struck out four in 5.2 innings on Friday, while Stanek allowed three runs on seven hits and struck out four in the first game of Saturday's doubleheader. Randall Fant made two starts during the week and picked up a win on Tuesday against Missouri State. Fant worked 7.1 innings on the week and gave up two runs on five hits with five strikeouts. Colby Suggs had three saves on the week and did not allow a hit in 2.1 innings of work. Suggs now has 10 saves on the season, which ranks tied for the fifth-highest single-season total in school history. Brandon Moore had three scoreless appearances on the week as well. Michael Gunn had two scoreless appearances, striking out four in 3.1 innings, while Trey Killian struck out two in 1.2 scoreless innings. Jalen Beeks pitched in three games and gave up a run on two hits in 3.2 innings. The Razorbacks hit .252 at the plate over the four games. Matt Vinson and Jake Wise led Arkansas with each hitting .400 on the week. Vinson went 6-for-15 with a RBI and two runs scored, while Wise was 4-for-10 with a homer, two RBI, two runs scored and six walks. Brian Anderson hit .333 with a homer and two RBI. Jacob Mahan drove in three runs on the week and hit .286, while Tyler Spoon had a team-high four RBI with a homer. Defensively, Arkansas had a .980 fielding percentage on the week, committing just three errors in 149 chances. Arkansas closes its home schedule next weekend as it hosts Tennessee at Baum Stadium. Game times for the weekend series are scheduled for 6:35 p.m. on Friday, 6:05 p.m. on Saturday and 1:05 p.m. on Sunday. The series finale will be televised by Cox Sports Television.

AUBURN Tigers

Auburn picked up a crucial SEC series win over the weekend, winning the final two games to win its third SEC series of the season and move to 27-19 overall and 9-15 SEC … The win was Auburn's fourth straight over Ole Miss and its second over the No. 18-ranked team in the country this season (defeated then-No. 18 Texas A&M April 5-7) … With the series win, Auburn gave itself a two-game lead over 13th-place Tennessee as it tries to secure a SEC Tournament berth for the fourth straight season … Both of Auburn's wins were come-from-behind wins, giving it 18 on the season … Junior catcher Blake Austin added to his caught stealing by resume with two over the weekend, giving him 37 in his career, fourth all-time in Auburn history … He is now just two behind Josh Bell (2003-05) for third … Austin also led Auburn at the plate, going 7-for-11 (.636) with three doubles, giving him a team-high 13 on the season … He also drove in two runs and scored two runs … Junior third baseman Damek Tomscha hit a pair of home runs on the weekend, hitting a two-run, game-tying home run in the 8-5 comeback win on Saturday and then hitting a game-winning, solo home run in the 5-4 win on Sunday … He finished the weekend 4-for-12 (.333) with three RBI and four runs scored and a .917 slugging percentage … Reliever Terrance Dedrick earned a win and a save against Ole Miss, throwing the final 2 2/3 innings on Saturday to pick up a save and the final 2 innings on Sunday to get the win … He struck out three without allowing a base runners on Saturday and then added a strike out on Sunday … He is now 4-2 on the season with a team-high six saves … Jordan Ebert snapped a dubious stats for Auburn on Saturday when he got a hit in the first inning … It marked Auburn's first hit with the bases loaded in SEC play, after going 0-for-19 in the first seven series … Auburn also picked up its first SEC series-finale win with the 5-4 win on Sunday … When Michael O'Neal took a no-decision on Saturday, it marked the first time this season he did not factor into the decision … Auburn will now play nine games in a 12 day span to end the season … The stretch begins on Tuesday at Jacksonville State, at home against Samford on Wednesday and at Florida over the weekend … The trip to Gainesville, Fla., will be Auburn's first since 2008.

FLORIDA Gators

Florida (25-23/12-12 SEC) dropped all three games to No. 3 LSU in Baton Rouge over the weekend by scores of 3-2, 5-0 and 18-6…Sophomore second baseman Casey Turgeon (.288, 38 R, 26 RBI) hit .364 (4-for-11) and freshman outfielder Harrison Bader (.294, 30 R, 14 RBI) batted .300 (3-for-10) to lead the Gator offense, which was held to a .214 team batting average in the series…UF jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning on Saturday on an RBI triple by sophomore Taylor Gushue (2-for-3) (.302, 31 RBI, 24 R) and a sacrifice fly by sophomore Justin Shafer (.306, 25 R, 22 RBI)…Turgeon (3-for-4) had singled up the middle with one down and Gushue lined a triple off of the wall in right field to put the visitors on the scoreboard…Shafer followed with his fourth sacrifice fly of the season to straightaway center field to bring home Gushue…Florida used six-consecutive singles in the ninth to score four runs, including RBI singles by freshman Richie Martin (.282), Turgeon and freshman Kevin Stypulkowski and a run-scoring fielder's choice by redshirt freshman Cory Reid to finalize the scoring…LSU sophomore right-hander Aaron Nola (9-0) registered his fourth-straight complete game with a four-hitter in a 5-0 victory on Friday night…The Gators saw an end to their three-series SEC winning streak and are now 4-4 in league series this spring…Sophomore left-hander Bobby Poyner (2-2, 4.56) made the first conference start of his career on the road but took the loss...Entering the game, Florida had been held scoreless just once on the season (2-0 at Mississippi State on April 6)…UF was 3-for-4 on stolen-base opportunities, with Bader (10), Martin (6) and senior Cody Dent (2) successful…Junior Ty Ross lofted a bases-loaded sacrifice fly into center field in the eighth inning to snap a 2-2 tie and lift LSU to a 3-2 series-opening victory on Thursday night...The Gators had broken the ice with an unearned run in the third inning...Dent and Martin (2-for-4) had consecutive one-out bunt singles and Turgeon earned a free pass to load the bases...Although sophomore Cody Glenn fielded a grounder by Gushue and threw out Dent at the plate, the Tigers failed to execute the inning-ending double play on a fielding error and Martin was able to score on the play...With Florida trailing by a run in the seventh, 2-1, sophomore Josh Tobias singled sharply to left field with two down, ending a stretch of 12 consecutive Gators set down...Moments later, Bader tied the game with a double into the gap in left center, scoring Tobias all the way from first base...Florida's stretch of five-straight one-run victories came to an end and it is now 6-8 in one-run affairs...Martin registered his ninth multiple-hit outing of the season... The Gators played error-free baseball for the 22nd time this year (12-10)...Florida will host five games at McKethan Stadium this week, facing Florida A&M (7-41/6-18 MEAC) on Monday and Florida Atlantic (28-19/13-11 Sun Belt) on Tuesday before welcoming Western Division rival Auburn (27-19/9-15 SEC) in a weekend set to complete its home schedule.

GEORGIA Bulldogs

Georgia needs conference wins to qualify for the 12-team SEC Tournament. Last weekend, Georgia traveled to Tennessee and posted an 8-7 win in game one with the final two contests rained out. Up next in the SEC, the Bulldogs face nationally ranked South Carolina 33-14, 13-10 SEC) in Columbia and all three games will be televised. Prior to the USC series, Georgia begins its Palmetto State road trip with a game at College of Charleston (26-20) Wednesday. Georgia leads the series with Charleston 2-0, winning a two-game series in Athens in 2003. USC holds a 53-38 edge over the Bulldogs in records dating back to 1950. The teams split an SEC series last year 1-1 in Athens with the final game rained out. The probable pitching matchup against Charleston will be Bulldog senior RHP Bryan Benzor (3-2, 4.50 ERA) versus Cougar freshman RHP Nathan Helvey (4-2, 2.68 ERA). Georgia's leading hitter, senior All-SEC third baseman Curt Powell (.387-0-20) ranks second in the SEC with 72 hits and fifth in batting average. He has has appeared in 161 games as a Bulldog with 155 starts. Currently, Powell and sophomore LHP/OF Jared Walsh have six-game hitting streaks. Walsh, one of the top two-way players in the SEC, is batting .303-2-19 and is 2-3 with a 2.05 ERA and 3 Saves in 15 appearances including three starts. Georgia senior shortstop Kyle Farmer (.297-3-41) is fielding .974, which would break his school record of .970 from last year. Farmer has 204 career starts and ranks in the top 10 in Bulldog history for Hits (256), Doubles (62), RBI (167), Total Bases (382) and At Bats (826). Also of note, Farmer is the NCAA leader in SF with 12. Bulldog freshmen infielders Jess Posey (.321-2-10) and Daniel Nichols (.214-2-11), prep teammates at Lee County High School, smashed home runs in the 8-7 road win over Tennessee and ace Zack Godley last Friday. Nichols' two-run shot broke a 2-2 tie in the third inning while Posey connected for a three-run blast in the fifth for a 7-2 advantage. It was the second career home run for both of them. Godley entered the game having thrown three straight complete games and had allowed just four home runs all year, however the Bulldogs tagged him for eight runs on 14 hits in six innings. Sophomore LHP Jarrett Brown (0-0, 2.28 ERA, 2 SV) leads the team with 22 relief appearances. He picked up his second career save in last Friday's win over Tennessee. The game ended when Brown and the Bulldogs thwarted Will Maddox's attempt to steal home. UT had rallied for four runs in the ninth and had the bases loaded trailing 8-7 when Maddox dashed for home. Brown stepped off the rubber, threw home to Brett DeLoach who chased Maddox and fired to third baseman Curt Powell who tagged him out to seal the victory. Overall, Georgia is batting .279 as a team with a 4.47 ERA and fielding .974. In SEC action, the Bulldogs own a .245 batting average, a 4.57 ERA and a .972 fielding percentage.

KENTUCKY Wildcats

Kentucky completed a three-game week with a three-game series against No. 14 Arkansas, part of a stretch of 14 of 16 games against ranked foes. The Wildcats fell in the first two games of the series before claiming the series finale on a walk-off single in the ninth inning. Kentucky (27-19, 10-14 Southeastern Conference) completed its finals week during the previous week, leading to no midweek tilts before the Arkansas series. The Wildcats welcomed the Razorbacks and their NCAA's leading pitching staff to Cliff Hagan Stadium on Friday. Arkansas won the opener, 2-1 with the impending weather forcing a doubleheader on Saturday. UK lost the middle game of the series and the opener of the doubleheader, 5-3, before rebounding with a 4-3 win in the finale on Zac Zellers walk-off single in the ninth. The Wildcats will return to their grueling schedule over the week, stepping out of non-league play for a Tuesday game vs. Wright State at 6:30 p.m. ET at Cliff Hagan Stadium. MISSISSIPPI STATE Bulldogs

Mississippi State (36-13/13-11 SEC) travels to Oxford, Miss., this weekend to wrap its 2013 regular season road schedule with a three-game series against instate SEC rival Ole Miss (33-16/12-12 SEC). Game times at Oxford-University Stadium are set for 6:30 p.m. Friday, 4 p.m. Saturday and, in a game televised by Comcast Sports Southeast, at 1 p.m. Sunday. MSU is 9-7 in games away from Dudy Noble Field this year … The Bulldogs registered their first two walk-off wins of the season last weekend en route to sweeping SEC West rival Alabama for the Bulldogs' fourth league series win in the last five weeks. In a weather-created Saturday doubleheader MSU used a seven-run second-inning burst to top the Tide 10-6 in the series-opener. Freshman Jacob Robson delivered a game-winning 10th-inning RBI single in a series-clinching 5-4 win while junior C.T. Bradford did the same a day later in an 11-inning 7-6 win that gave MSU its first SEC home series sweep of the year. Bradford (.296) collected a team-best seven hits and drove in three runs on a .467 hitting weekend. Robson, of two program-first rookie Bulldogs from Canada on the 2013 club, hit .500 (5-for-10) … The MSU bullpen, with 21 wins and 15 saves this year, registered three wins and a save against Alabama. Sophomore Jonathan Holder (2-0, 1.26) registered a win and tied the Mississippi State record with his 13th save during the weekend, while sophomore Ross Mitchell (9-0, 1.32) picked up his team-leading ninth win in relief. Senior Chad Girodo delivered three innings of scoreless relief and notched his fourth win in two trips from the bullpen … Junior outfielder Hunter Renfroe (.394, 15 home runs, 49 RBI) added to his SEC-leading home run total with his 15th blast of the year. Renfroe last week was named to the mid-season watch list for the 2013 Golden Spikes Award … Sophomore first baseman Wes Rea (.290) also clubbed a home run, his fifth of the year, and shared team RBI honors (4) with senior DH Trey Porter. Porter lashed a pair of two-run doubles in the series-opening win … Junior second baseman extended Brett Pirtle ended a career-best eight-game hitting streak against Alabama but extended his team-best on-base streak to 22 games … With the walk-off wins State is now 8-3 in one-run games … MSU raised its season total for paid home attendance to 213,054, marking the seventh time MSU has eclipsed the 200,000 mark in attendance at Dudy Noble Field. With four home dates remaining, MSU is on track to break the Dudy Noble Field season attendance mark of 233,015. MSU is now nearing the five million mark in home paid attendance. Since State first started tracking home baseball attendance in 1976 MSU has drawn paid attendance 4,988,860 over 38 seasons, 11,140 away from the milestone mark … The online auction of 24 "Boston tribute" Mississippi State caps worn by the Bulldogs in their nationally-televised game with Auburn Apr. 18 raised $25,441 for One Fund Boston, supporting Boston Marathon bomb victims and their families … Senior infielders Sam Frost from Hoover, Ala., (3.76 GPA, mathematics) and Trey Porter (3.87 GPA, kinesiology) from Hurley, Miss., were named to CoSIDA's Academic All-District VI Baseball Team and are among three SEC players advancing in the selection process for the 2013 Capital One Academic All-American Team … MSU closes out its regular season schedule with four home games next week, hosting first-time foe Oral Roberts (May14) and SEC East power South Carolina (May 16-18).

MISSOURI Tigers

Mizzou lost four consecutive games last week, dropping the team to 15-28 on the season and 7-17 in SEC play … The Tigers lost to in-state rival SEMO, 9-7, on Tuesday (April 30) despite carrying a 5-3 lead into the sixth inning of that game … Mizzou was then swept at Texas A&M in three straight games over the weekend in College Station … On Friday night, the Tigers wasted a great start from Rob Zastryzny, who went 8.0 innings, allowing just two earned runs on seven hits while striking out seven … Mizzou scored in the first inning of that game but couldn't overcome three consecutive hits to open the fourth inning as the Aggies plated their only two runs of the game in that frame … The Tigers again held a 5-3 lead, this time on Saturday headed into the ninth inning at Texas A&M, but the defense committed four errors in the inning, which led to three unearned runs to give Texas A&M a walkoff, 6-5, win … All six runs in the game were unearned as Brett Graves pitched well enough to earn his second win of the season, going 6.2 innings, scattering just seven hits while striking out four and walking none with his only blemish being three unearned runs in the first inning … Freshman Josh Lester hit his second career homer, a game-tying three-run shot in the sixth inning and junior infielder Shane Segovia hit a go-ahead two-run single with two outs in the seventh, but the defense could not hold up in the ninth … Mizzou again struck first on Sunday at Texas A&M as Logan Pearson led off the game with a walk and was batted around to score on a Dylan Kelly single to center field with two outs, but that was the only run production for the Tigers on the day as they lost 4-1...Mizzou has scored in the first inning in five of the last 11 games.

- Logan Pearson has reached base to lead off a game five times in the 11 games since he has been in the leadoff spot, scoring on all five occasions. In fact, Pearson is hitting a team-best .333 since moving to the leadoff spot and also leads the team in slugging (.462) and OBP (.480) in that span...Mizzou's Dane Opel landed at No. 1 on ESPN's Sportscenter Top 10 Plays over the weekend after robbing Texas A&M catcher Troy Stein of a homer in Saturday's 6-5 loss. He is the second Tiger in as many years to appear on Top Plays. ...Mizzou is doing most of its damage with the homerun in conference play, hitting 10 of its 13 homers on the season in league games this year. ...Mizzou was hit by two pitches over the weekend at Texas A&M as it continues to rank second in the league in hit batters this season with 68. Conversely, Mizzou pitching has hit just 24 batters all season....Rob Zastryzny struck out seven Texas A&M batters on Friday night as he now has 217 career strikeouts, just six shy of cracking the all-time top-10 at Mizzou. He could break into the top 10 at Alabama next weekend....The second inning continues to be the Tigers' best as they have outscored opponents, 26-6, in the second inning. ...Mizzou's loss to Texas A&M on Saturday marked the first time all season that Mizzou had lost when leading after eight innings. They had previously been 10-0. ...Junior infielder Dillon Everett launched his first career homer in Tuesday's loss to SEMO, launching a 3-2 pitch over the wall in left center for a solo shot....Freshman Josh Lester played at second base in Tuesday's loss to SEMO as he has now played every position along the Tiger infield. He also hit his second career homer Saturday at Texas A&M despite having just two career homers in high school....Mizzou's pitching staff has actually done a pretty good job over the last 10 games, boasting a staff ERA of 2.41, allowing just 24 earned runs in 89.2 innings pitched. In fact, in the last eight conference games, Mizzou has a staff ERA of 1.63. ..Mizzou has lost its fair share of games this season (28), but 17 of those 28 losses have come by three or fewer runs, including the last eight losses. In fact, Mizzou has lost eight games by two runs and six by a single run.

SOUTH CAROLINA Gamecocks

South Carolina is now 33-14 and 13-10 in the SEC after a pair of losses vs. top ranked Vanderbilt this past weekend. The Gamecocks are 33-14 on the year with a 13-10 record in the SEC. South Carolina is in second place in the SEC Eastern Division and fourth place overall in the conference standings. Both games were tight in Columbia with the Gamecocks and Commodores as Carolina fell 3-2 in the series opener followed by a 5-2 defeat on a Saturday. South Carolina is now 7-6 on the year in one-run games as well as 18-11 in games decided by three runs or less. South Carolina is hitting .282 (442-for-1566) as a team with 276 runs scored. The .282 average is fourth best in the league with Carolina leading the SEC with 41 home runs. South Carolina ranks third in slugging percentage (.423) and fourth in on-base percentage (.374) as well. The Gamecock pitching staff owns a 3.07 ERA with

Team-By-Team Notes

372 strikeouts to 112 walks in 419.0 innings pitched. The ERA ranks sixth best in the SEC. Opponents are hitting only .252 against the staff. South Carolina is fielding .972 as a team, eighth best in the SEC. Senior first baseman LB Dantzler continues to be the top bat in the South Carolina offense. Dantzler is Carolina's leading hitter with a .345 average (58-for-168) with 12 homers and 44 RBI. He currently owns a 10-game hitting streak and has reached base safely in 24 straight games. His nine multi-RBI games leads the team with 14 multi-hit games tied for second highest on the team as well. He is third in the SEC in home runs (12) and slugging percentage (.649), fourth in total bases (109), tied for fourth in doubles (13), tied for fourth in walks (29), seventh in on-base percentage (.449), tied for 11th in hits (58) and 12th in batting average (.345). He had two hits in Friday's 3-2 loss and tallied a base hit and a run scored in Saturday's 5-2 defeat. Senior left-hander Nolan Belcher had a quality start in Friday's 3-2 loss. Belcher allowed three runs on six hits in six innings with a walk and six strikeouts. Belcher is 6-5 with a 2.21 ERA in 85.2 innings. He has 71 strikeouts and just 10 walks, opponents are batting just .227 against him. He ranks fourth in innings pitched, tied for sixth in strikeouts, eighth in opposing batting average, tied for eighth in victories and ninth in earned run average. Sophomore shortstop Joey Pankake went 2-for-4 with a RBI double in the 3-2 loss vs. Vanderbilt. Pankake is currently second on the team in hitting with a .310 average (54-for-174). He has nine homers and 32 RBI for the year. He ranks fifth in the SEC in home runs as well as 12th in slugging percentage (.500) and 12th in total bases (87). Saiko has a .365 on-base percentage for the year with 28 walks to just 13 strikeouts. He is also second on the team with 10 stolen bases. Sophomore right-hander Evan Beal pitched 2.1 scoreless innings of relief with just two hits allowed and a walk in the 5-2 loss to Vanderbilt. Beal lowered his ERA to 4.76. He has 35 strikeouts in 28.1 innings pitched. Freshman second baseman Max Schrock tallied a RBI singled and walked in the 5-2 loss to Vanderbilt. Schrock owns a .276 average (45-for-163) at the plate with seven doubles, two triples, four homers and 32 RBI. He has 29 walks to 17 strikeouts with a .389 on-base percentage. Senior right-hander Patrick Sullivan pitched 1.1 scoreless innings with two hits allowed, a walk and two strikeouts. Sullivan lowered his ERA to 2.78 in 22.2 innings pitched, 15 appearances. Sophomore Kyle Martin hit his first home run of the season, a pinch-hit homer, in Friday's 3-2 loss vs. Vanderbilt. The home run was Martin's second of his career. His previous homer came March 9, 2012 vs. Princeton. It was the first pinch-hit homer by a Gamecock since Jake Williams on March 8, 2011 vs. Clemson. Freshman left-hander allowed one run on four hits in 2.2 innings of relief in the 5-2 loss to Vanderbilt. Fiori tied a career-high with four strikeouts as well; he previously had four K's vs. Charleston Southern on April 2, 2013. He is 1-0 with a 3.72 ERA on the year in 12 relief appearances. Fiori has 19 strikeouts in 19.1 innings.

TENNESSEE Volunteers

Tennessee dropped back-to-back one-run games to MTSU and Georgia to open the week before Mother Nature intervened and forced the cancellation of the final two contests against the Bulldogs due to steady rain most of the day Saturday and all day Sunday. On Tuesday, the Blue Raiders had two players hit a pair of home runs each as they squeaked past UT, 7-6. A.J. Simcox led a 10-hit Orange and White offensive attack, going 3-for-4 with an RBI. Vincent Jackson and Will Maddox also had two hits in the contest, with Maddox driving in a run and stealing two bases. One of those stolen bases was a straight steal of home, the third time a Vol has accomplished that particular feat this year. The Big Orange found itself in a deep hole heading into the bottom of the ninth against Georgia down 8-3 on Friday but managed to rally to score four runs and load the bases before Maddox was caught trying to steal home for the second time in two games with two strikes and two outs to end the game with the Bulldogs on top, 8-7, The Vols have now played 17 one-run contests this season, marking the second-highest total in school history behind only the 2005 and 2007 season when they played 18 one-run games. The Big Orange is 6-11 in those games this season with the 11 one-run losses standing as the most in the 104-year history of the program. Tennessee will next be in action on Wednesday when it hosts Arkansas State at 6 p.m. at Lindsey Nelson Stadium. The Big Orange will then begin the trek to Fayetteville, Ark., for a three-game series against No. 14 Arkansas at Baum Stadium. Game times are set for 7:35 p.m. ET on Friday, 7:05 p.m. ET on Saturday and 2:05 p.m. ET on Sunday. The series finale will be broadcast on Cox Sports Television.

TEXAS A&M Aggies

The Aggies already have 50 sacrifice bunts on the season... Their current pace will give A&M 62 through a 55-game regular season, well ahead of the school-record of 55 set in 2011... Krey Bratsen leads the team with 15 sacrifice bunts followed by Charlie Curl with 10... Mikey Reynolds has reached safely in all 42 games he has played in this season, the longest active streak in the nation... Kyle Martin made his 90th career appearance, third on A&M's career list, trailing only Kyle Thebeau (103 – 2006-09) and Estevan Uriegas (100 – 2009-12)... A&M has had 39 different batting orders through 44 games... The Aggies have had 10 different batters start games in the seventh spot in the batting order... A&M has also eight different players bat in both the sixth and ninth spots... Mikey Reynolds, Krey Bratsen and Blake Allemand are the only players to start more than half the team's games in the same spot in the batting order, with Reynolds starting 36 in the leadoff spot, Bratsen starting 42 in the No. 2 spot and Allemand batting third in 26 games... Blake Allemand has hit in seven different spots in the batting order ... Krey Bratsen stole his 66th base over the weekend, moving into third place on the Aggies' career list, trailing only Jason Tyner (118 – 1996-98) and Chuck Knoblauch (83 – 1987-89)... The Aggies are 10-0 in midweek action at home this season, winning the games by a combined margin of 65-21... The pitching staff owns a 1.70 ERA and holding foes to a .211 batting average in midweek home games ... In Saturday's 3-2 loss at Alabama, Parker Ray made his first start on the mound since youth baseball, working 7.2 innings, allowing three runs on five runs and two hits while striking out four.

VANDERBILT Commodores

Vanderbilt played only two games during the week topping #15 South Carolina twice before Sunday's series finale was rained out... The series sweep of the Gamecocks is the first ever for the Commodores... Vandy held down South Carolina on Friday night to win 3-2... Kevin Ziomek was outstanding, tossing seven scoreless innings before finally allowing a run in the eighth, earning his ninth win of the season... Brian Miller allowed a home run in the ninth but still notched his 13th save of the year... Spencer Navin's two-run homer in the second inning gave the Dores the lead and Mike Yastrzemski helped manufacture the eventual winning-run in the sixth... Vanderbilt clinched the series on Saturday behind another stellar start from Tyler Beede... The sophomore carried a no hitter into the seventh inning for the second time this season en route to winning his 12th game in his 12th start of the year... Zander Wiel, Vince Conde and Mike Yastrzemski all had three-hit games as the Dores outhit the Gamecocks 14-3... Sunday's rainout was the first of the season for Vandy... The series victory is the 12th of the season and 16th straight dating back to last year and eighth sweep of the year, including six in Southeastern Conference play... The Commodores return home to host Presbyterian on Wednesday night at 6:30 p.m. before heading to #23 Kentucky for a weekend series.

SEC NOTES

SECond To None

In the past 23 years, the Southeastern Conference has been the top college baseball conference in the nation. Consider:

- Since 1990, 153 squads have received NCAA Tournament bids to lead the nation.
- A nation-leading 46 SEC teams have recorded College World Series berths since 1990, winning nine of the last 23 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011) and six runner-ups (1997, 2002, 2005, 2008,2011 and 2012).
- Ten different SEC squads (Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vanderbilt) have made CWS appearances since 1990, the most squads from a conference to appear in Omaha since that time.
- SEC squads have appeared in 27 of the last 28 College World Series, with the lone miss in 1992.
- Since 1990, 28 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins, while 113 have won 40+ games in a season, including six in 2012.

SEC IN THE COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Since 1990, the Southeastern Conference has been the most successful baseball conference in the country. The SEC has won nine of the last 23 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011), finished runner-up six times and has put more teams in the College World Series than any conference in the country. Take a look at the SEC's success in the last 23 years:

SEC FIRST ROUND MAJOR LEAGUE PICKS

Four SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2012 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Florida's Mike Zunino was picked third by the Seattle Mariners. Kevin Gausman of LSU was selected fourth by the Baltimore Orioles, while Mississippi State's Chris Stratton was 20th by the San Francisco Giants. Brian Johnson of Florida was selected 31st by the Boston Red Sox. With those four selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 93 total in the first round during that time.

SEC TIES

With the hiring of John Cohen at Mississippi State in the summer of 2008, there are now three SEC head coaches (David Perno-Georgia; Dave Van Horn-Arkansas) who played at and now are the head coach at their alma mater. Three other head coaches are former SEC players as well: Ole Miss' Mike Bianco (played at LSU), Alabama's Mitch Gaspard (played two years at LSU) and LSU's Paul Mainieri (played one season at LSU).

SEC BEGINS 78TH SEASON OF CONFERENCE PLAY

This marks the 79th season of conference play in the SEC. In 1933, baseball became one of the first sports in which the SEC crowned a champion. The league did not sponsor teams in 1945 and 1946 due to World War II.

The SEC standings below include all regular-season games from 1933-2012, with SEC Tournament games counting in 1993 and 1994.

The Southeastern Conference

Setting the Standard for Intercollegiate Athletics

in

Baseball

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 79-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC posted another tremendous season in 2012 as the conference had eight teams earn selection to NCAA postseason play with South Carolina, Arkansas and Florida advancing to the College World Series. A SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 27 of the last 28 years. South Carolina advanced to the National Championship Series, marking the eighth time since 2000 a SEC team played for the national championship in Omaha and fifth in a row. Mississippi State won the SEC tournament title over Vanderbilt. LSU won the SEC regular-season title with a 19-11 conference record, while South Carolina won the Eastern Division with a 18-11 record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts 12 former National Players of the Year (Florida's Mike Zunino won in 2012), 11 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 10 Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. Also, 155 student-athletes have been named first-team All-American, six of which came in 2012.

Four SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2012 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Florida's Mike Zunino was picked third by the Seattle Mariners. Kevin Gausman of LSU was selected fourth by the Baltimore Orioles, while Mississippi State's Chris Stratton was 20th by the San Francisco Giants. Brian Johnson of Florida was selected 31st by the Boston Red Sox. With those four selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 93 total in the first round during that time.

The SEC drew a record of nearly 2.2 million fans to its on-campus ballparks in 2012, the sixth year in a row to draw over 1.6 million. Seven SEC teams drew in excess of 100,000 fans to their parks in 2012. The SEC averaged a record 5,181 fans per game in 2012, the sixth straight year to exceed the 4,000 mark and first over 5,000. The SEC Baseball Tournament drew a new record-high of 129,112 fans in 2012, 7,595 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. The SEC Championship Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN2 for the third straight year.

Notes

- The SEC has sent 46 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 12 times, Florida eight times, South Carolina six times, Georgia five times, Mississippi State four times, while Alabama, Arkansas and Tennessee have been three times each. Auburn has been twice.
- SEC teams have won nine of the last 22 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011) and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner up six times in that time, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011 and 2012.
- SEC teams are 95-80 since 1990 in Omaha, a 55.9 winning percentage. Not counting games against each other, the SEC has posted a 70-56 record in the College World Series since 1990, a 55.6 winning percentage.
- The SEC has played 43 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over 1.5 per year. Only five times, 1992,1994, 2003, 2006 and 2007 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.
- The SEC has averaged nearly eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 150 of the 330 games in the College World Series, an amazing 45.5 percent of games. SEC teams played in 9 of the 15 in 2012.
- The SEC has sent 10 of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Ole Miss has played in four Super Regionals the last eight seasons.
- Since 1990, 153 SEC squads have been invited to the NCAA Tournament, an average over seven per season. The SEC set yet another NCAA record in 2004, 2005 and 2008 with nine teams earning postseason births. The SEC also had a NCAA-record five teams earn regional host sites in 2004 and 2006.
- The SEC has had an NCAA-high 11 different teams compete in the 59-year history of the College World Series. In those appearances, the conference has registered a 117-119 record, a 49.6 winning percentage.
- Since 1990, 28 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins, while 113 have won 40+ games in a season, including six in 2012.
- The SEC posted a 252-89 record against non-conference foes in 2012, a 73.9 winning percentage. Since 1990, the SEC has accumulated a 5559-2087-4 record against non-conference teams, a 72.7 winning percentage.
- SEC teams have also been strong in the polls. Since 1990, 111 conference teams have appeared in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.

SEC ANNOUNCES FORMAT CHANGE TO ANNUAL BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. -- The Southeastern Conference has altered the format and expanded the field for its annual baseball tournament, SEC Commissioner Mike Slive announced today.

The 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament, which will be held in Hoover, Ala., at the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium for the 16th consecutive year, will increase from 10 to 12 teams and will begin on Tuesday, May 21. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday. The tournament will return to single elimination play on Saturday. The total number of games played will not change, remaining at 17.

The 12 teams are seeded 1-12 with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another bye later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions plus 10 at-large bids seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.

A team from the SEC Tournament has advanced to five consecutive National Championship Series in Omaha, winning three NCAA titles during that span (LSU 2009; South Carolina 2010 and 2011). Over 100 first-round picks in the Major League Baseball Draft have played in SEC Tournament since 1991.

Tickets for the 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament will go on sale in February.

The 2012 SEC Baseball Tournament drew 129,112 fans to The Hoover Met, a new record-high for the event. Seven times in the last 10 years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance. The SEC is scheduled to keep its baseball tournament in Hoover through 2016.
