SEC Media Services

Player and Pitcher of the Week

The SEC will name a player and a pitcher of the week each Monday beginning February 18. The award will be released for Monday afternoon publication and announced in the weekly SEC baseball release.

Nominations for the awards are made each week by the baseball sports information contacts at each SEC institution. The award winners are chosen by a vote of the SEC Media Relations staff.

SEC Baseball on Twitter

Follow @SEC_Chuck for the latest happenings on baseball in the SEC, including complete SEC and NCAA Tournament coverage.

Pre-Tournament Teleconference

The SEC will conduct a pre-tournament teleconference Monday, May 20 featuring the eight participating head coaches. Each coach will answer questions from the media for ten minutes following a brief introduction. For further information on this teleconference, please consult the weekly SEC release or contact the SEC Media Relations Department.

www.SECsports.com

The Southeastern Conference has established a dynamic presence on the internet with it official site on the world wide web -- www. secsports.com and the new SEC Digital Network.

SEC Baseball information is updated daily. The site will contain standings, schedules, results, and notes on the SEC and each team. SEC baseball information is also available via email. Contact the SEC Media Relations office for details or register at www.secsportsmedia.com.

All information is now available directly from the SEC's media web site, www.secsportsmedia.com. All the lastest stats, notes, releases, etc. are available as soon as released from the conference office. Through the services of Sports Systems, the SEC has a digital image platform that gives you access to the SEC's latest photographs, images and logos. To access the platform, go to www.secportsmedia.com and click on the icon. SEC Information is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week on the SEC media website.

Documents are automatically posted on the media web site as soon as they are updated by the conference.

The SEC baseball release will be available each Tuesday (February 24 through June) on the league's media site and regular website, www.secsports.com.

Standings and results will be updated each weekday throughout the season on the regular website, while statistics will be updated each Monday and Thursday throughout conference play (beginning mid-March).

SEC Player of the Week

Joey Pankake • South Carolina

• Pankake had a productive week at the plate as he hit .438 (7-for-16) in the five games with four homers, seven runs scored and nine RBI. Pankake hit a pair of three-run homers in each of the wins over Ball State.

• He then homered in both Saturday and Sunday's victories over Rider. He drove in at least one run in all five games this week. For the season, Pankake is hitting .326 (15-for-46) with four homers, 14 RBI and 11 runs scored. He is currently on a seven-game hitting streak. Drove in only run in Sunday's 1-0 win.

SEC Pitcher of the Week

Kevin Ziomek • Vanderbilt

Junior • LHP • Amherst, Mass.

• Tossed his second consecutive complete game allowing one run on two hits against #15 Oregon on Friday night.

• The lefty dominated allowing only one base runner and no hits after the fourth inning, retiring 18 of the final 19 batters he faced. Ziomek fanned at least one batter in all nine innings and struck out eight Ducks at least once.

• Over his last two starts the junior has two complete game wins striking out 28 and allowing one run on three hits with four walks.

SEC Freshman of the Week

Trey Killian • Arkansas

RHP • Mountain Home, Ark.

• Killian tossed seven no hit innings to lead Arkansas to an 8-2 win over San Diego State in game three of the series … Killian retired the first 17 batters he faced against the Aztecs, carrying a perfect game until two outs in the sixth … Only allowed two batters to reach during his seven innings, one on a walk and the other reached on an error.

• Did not have a base runner advance past first base during the outing … Tossed 84 pitches, 61 of those for strikes, in the outing with 72.6 percent of his deliveries going for strikes … Struck out seven in the performance and only issued one walk.

2013 SEC TOURNAMENT

May 21-26• Hoover Metropolitan Stadium • Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament returns for a 16th straight year to the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium in the south-Birmingham city of Hoover, Ala., May 21-26

The 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament will increase to from 10 to 12 teams and will remain set to begin on Tuesday, May 21. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday. The tournament will return to single elimination play on Saturday. The total number of games played will not change, remaining at 17.
The 12 teams are seeded 1-12 with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions plus 10 at-large bids seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.
Last season, Mississippi State defeated Vanderbilt 3-0 in front of 12,526 fans and a national television audience on ESPN2 to claim SEC Tournament title.

The Hoover Met formerly served as home of the Double-A Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox) of the Southern League. The stadium also has served as host of the NCAA Men's Soccer Final Four, as well as home to the nationally renowned Hoover Buccaneer high school football program.

Located eight miles south of Birmingham, Regions Park seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate over 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005 and a second-level pressbox expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $6 million renovation project. A new HD video scoreboard was added in 2008, while the SEC introduced the nation to a 'pitch clock' in 2010. A new sound systems and concourse amenities such as refurbished restrooms big screen HDTVs at concessions stands were added in 2012.

The 2012 SEC Baseball Tournament drew 129,112 fans to The Hoover Met, a new record-high for the event. Seven times in the last 10 years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance.
The SEC is currently scheduled to keep its baseball tournament in Hoover at The Hoover Met through 2016 under the current contract.

All games of the tournament have been televised in high definition since 2008, with ESPN set to broadcast the championship game nationally for the fourth straight year in 2013.

Team-By-Team Notes

ALABAMA Crimson Tide

Alabama had an 0-4 week that included a loss to Auburn in the MAX Capital City Classic, before being swept by No. 5 Louisville ... the Tide played their second ranked opponent of the season in the No. 5 Louisville Cardinals, and is now 1-3 against ranked opponents in 2013 ... Alabama was defeated by the Tigers, 6-3, in the MAX Capital City Classic on Tuesday and have now lost all five games in the history of the classic ... Alabama played two extra-inning games against Louisville, losing the opener, 4-3, in 14 innings and the series finale, 8-7, in 10 innings ... the 14-inning game on Friday was the longest since April 14, 2010 when the Tide suffered a 6-5 loss to LSU ... the Tide was shutout for the third time this season with a 6-0 loss in game two at Louisville, which included a season-low two hits ... after opening the season with a 6-0 start, Alabama is 2-7 in its last nine games and is riding a four-game losing streak ... Alabama will play five games next week, including a pair of midweek games against Memphis on Tuesday and Wednesday ... the Tide will open Southeastern Conference play with a three-game series against Tennessee at home, beginning on Friday at 6:35 p.m. CT. Pitching Notes: Mitch Greer made appearances three and four of the season against No. 5 Louisville this weekend, throwing 3.0 innings and allowing one earned run on one hit with three strikeouts ... in 5.2 innings this season, Greer has eight strikeouts ... Ray Castillo came out of the bullpen to throw 2.1 innings against Louisville on Friday, allowing no runs on one hit with two walks and a strikeout ... in six appearances and 15.0 innings pitched, Castillo has a 2-0 record, a 2.40 ERA and a .176 opponent's batting average ... Keaton Haack threw 0.2 innings against Louisville on Saturday, where he allowed four runs (three unearned), including his first earned run of the season ... Haack leads the Tide with a 0.71 ERA in 12.2 innings, with 13 strikeouts and a .156 opponent's batting average ... on Friday against Louisville, Charley Sullivan posted his second quality start of the season, throwing 7.0 innings, allowing three runs on nine hits with a walk, but did not factor into the decision ... ARKANSAS Razorbacks

The No. 19 Arkansas baseball team posted a 4-0 record on the week, sweeping a four-game series against San Diego State. With the four wins vs. the Aztecs, the Razorbacks now have a record of 11-5. Arkansas hit .258 as a team against SDSU. Redshirt freshman outfielder/infielder Tyler Spoon led Arkansas at the plate, hitting .467 (7-for-15) with a homer, three RBI and two runs scored. Spoon had at least one hit in each game of the series, extending his hitting streak to 16 straight games to start the season. Senior infielder Jacob Mahan went 6-for-13 against the Aztecs with a RBI and four runs scored. Redshirt sophomore infielder Eric Fisher hit .300 (3-for-10) with a RBI and two runs scored. Sophomore outfielder Joe Serrano hit his first collegiate home run in game two of the series vs. San Diego State, a walk-off solo home run with two outs in the bottom of the ninth to give Arkansas a 4-3 win. On the mound, the Razorback pitching staff compiled a 1.50 team ERA. Freshman Trey Killian, senior Randall Fant and freshman Colin Poche each did not allow a run in their starts during the series. Killian earned his second win of the season, working seven no hit innings and striking out seven Aztecs. Killian retired the first 17 batters he faced and only allowed two batters to reach during his seven innings. Fant tossed six shutout innings in the series finale vs. SDSU and struck out three. Poche earned the win in the series opener after throwing four scoreless frames with two strikeouts. Junior Barrett Astin pitched in two games out of the bullpen and had one save. Astin struck out two and gave up a run in four innings. The save for Astin was the 15th of his career, moving him into a tie for second on the UA career saves list with Bill Bakewell (1977-79). Sophomore Jalen Beeks, redshirt senior Trent Daniel, sophomore Michael Gunn, junior Brandon Moore and senior Tyler Wright each had one scoreless outing of the Arkansas bullpen. Beeks earned the win in game two of the series, striking out three in 2.2 scoreless, while Gunn picked up the win in the series finale, working a scoreless inning. Arkansas has five home games scheduled for the upcoming week. The Razorbacks will host Alabama A&M on Tuesday and Wednesday, before opening Southeastern Conference play next weekend with a three-game series vs. Ole Miss.

AUBURN Tigers

Auburn went a perfect 4-0 last week to improve to 12-3, the program's best start to a season since the 2007 team was 13-2 ... Last week's run had a lot to do with the team's pitching, which had a 2.25 ERA over the four games and now has a 2.73 ERA overall ... Junior Conner Kendrick started the week off with six shutout innings out of the bullpen in a 6-3, non-conference win over Alabama while junior Michael O'Neal continued it with a complete game shutout of Brown ... In six games this season, Kendrick has a spotless 0.00 ERA in 16 1/3 innings and he leads the team in strike outs with 22 ... Of the nine base runners he has allowed, only four have been via hit ... Of those four hits, three times it has been the first batter he faced that has gotten the hit off of him ... He is now holding opponents to a .077 batting average ... O'Neal lowered his ERA to a miniscule 1.40 in four starts, all wins ... The left-hander leads the staff in innings pitched (25 2/3) and is holding opponents to a .204 batting average, having surrendered just two extra-base hits so far ... GEORGIA Bulldogs

Georgia (7-8) wraps up a nine-game home stand with a midweek series against Appalachian State (8-4) before hitting the road to open SEC action at league newcomer Texas A&M (10-7) Friday. Game three of the Aggies series will be televised by Fox Southwest at 1 p.m. ET. Georgia is batting .314 with a 4.73 ERA and a .978 fielding percentage. Friday will mark the first-ever meeting between the Bulldogs and Aggies. Freshman RHP/OF Sean McLaughlin improved to 3-0, 1.80 ERA as the Friday night starter. In his last outing, he tossed six scoreless innings with seven strikeouts in a 12-0 win over Liberty. He has made six starts in the outfield and appeared in nine games, batting .263-0-3. Five different Bulldogs have pitched and hit this year. Sophomore RF/Closer Jared Walsh is a regular two-way player. Walsh is 1-1 with a 1.12 ERA and 2 saves in six outings to finish games. He is batting .354-1-8 in 12 games, all starts in right field. Last week in four games, he batted .471 with four doubles in 17 at bats. Senior third baseman Curt Powell leads the team with a .415 batting average. He is riding an 11-game hitting streak, his longest since a 14-gamer in 2012. Last week , Powell batted .556 (10-for-18) with there RBI. Sophomore second baseman and leadoff hitter Nelson Ward (.409-0-9) has a career-best eight-game hitting streak. Last week, he batted .333 (6-for-18) with three RBI and three walks. Freshman catcher Zack Bowers (.323-4-9) has half of Georgia's home runs. Bowers has played in only eight games this year and has four home runs in 31 at bats. He splits time with senior Brett DeLoach (.286-1-10). Senior LHP Blake Dieterich leads the team with a 0.56 ERA in seven relief appearances covering a span of 16 innings. He has 79 career appearances which ranks eighth in Bulldog history. Georgia's rotation for the ASU series will be a pair of freshman right-handers in David Gonzalez (0-1, 10.80) and Austin Wallace (0-0, 0.00 ERA). It will be the fourth start for Gonzalez and the first for Wallace. Against Texas A&M, the Bulldogs will employ the same weekend rotation they have used for the first four weekend series: Sean McLaughlin (3-0, 1.80), Fr., RHP; Patrick Boling (1-2, 4.87), RJr., LHP; Luke Crumley (1-2, 6.91), So., RHP. Did You Know? Georgia has as many triples this year as home runs, eight! You have to go back to 1977 to find the last time those tallies were that close. That season, Georgia finished with 21 triples and 22 home runs in 46 games. Last year, Georgia collected 11 triples and 25 home runs in 57 games.

KENTUCKY Wildcats

Seventh-ranked Kentucky completed a 3-1 week with a series win over Michigan State during the weekend, also picking up a midweek win over Xavier on Wednesday. The Wildcats will play five games during their spring break, including opening Southeastern Conference play at Florida over the weekend, with the Gators coming off three consecutive trips to the College World Series. Kentucky (13-2) started the week off with a 6-3 win against Xavier, as freshman right-hander Kyle Cody record his first career collegiate win, throwing five innings and striking out three. UK opened the series with the Spartans – a 2012 NCAA Tournament team and 37-win club a year ago – with a 2-1 win on Friday night. Sophomore left-hander A.J. Reed worked seven shutout innings, allowing only five hits and two walks. All-American centerfielder Austin Cousino got UK on the board with a first-inning homer, before Max Kuhn slugged his first career homer in the bottom of the eighth as the game-winning bomb. On Saturday, Michigan State right-hander David Garner, a 2012 Cape Cod League All-Star, turned in a dominating performance, working 8.1 innings in a 6-1 MSU win. Kentucky rebounded to win the series on Sunday in another rubber-match win from junior southpaw Corey Littrell, making his eighth series-deciding start in the last two years. The All-American starter worked seven innings and allowed just one run, striking out a career-high nine. During the week, UK was led offensively by Kuhn and McConkey, with each totaling three RBI. McConkey, a 5-foot-11 junior, started in three games during the week, batting .444 (4-for-9) with one double, one homer, three RBI, and a .500 on-base percentage. Kuhn, a sophomore infielder from Zionsville, Ind., started all four games this week for the Wildcats, batting .357 (5-14) with two doubles, one homer, three RBI and a .438 on-base percentage. The Rebels travel to take on Louisiana-Monroe in a pair of midweek games on Tuesday and Wednesday with both games beginning at 6 p.m. ... Ole Miss will then continue to play on the road and open Southeastern Conference play at No. 16 Arkansas over the weekend with a three-game series ... Sunday's game at Arkansas will be televised by Cox Sports Television.

MISSISSIPPI STATE Bulldogs

Mississippi State (17-2) ventures away from Dudy Noble Field for the first time this season before opening a 30-game SEC slate during a four-game schedule this week.

The Bulldogs visit Trustmark Park in Pearl, Miss., Tuesday for a 6:30 p.m. matchup with the Southern Miss Golden Eagles (7-8). It's the first of two MSU visits this season to the home of the Class AA Mississippi Braves. State then returns to Starkville to begin league play with a three-game weekend series (6:30 p.m./6 p.m./1:30 p.m.) against defending SEC champion LSU (15-1). Saturday's MSU-LSU game, set for broadcast by Comcast, is the first of nine scheduled TV appearances for the Diamond Dogs this spring … State bested Mississippi Valley State 14-2 in the midweek and with a series-opener 4-2 win over UCA extended its record to 17-0. But in MSU's first extra-inning battle of the year, UCA prevailed 7-5 and the Bears then sealed the series with a 7-3 Sunday win … Sophomore relief ace Jonathan Holder (1-0, 3.86) notched his sixth save of the season with an inning of work in State's series-opening win over UCA. With 15 career saves Holder is tied for seventh (with Adam Larson) for seventh among MSU's career leaders … State used 28 players, including 10 pitchers, in their extra-inning loss to UCA. For the weekend 32 players saw playing time … Junior right-fielder Hunter Renfroe (.420) has taken over the team leading in hitting. In four games his eight hits included a double, a triple, his third and fourth home runs of the season and a team-best seven RBI. Gentry leads the club with 10 relief appearances … State's defense (.975) turned seven double plays in four games and sets the pace in the SEC with 29 DPs … The MSU bullpen has posted an 11-1 record with seven saves, a 1.55 ERA and 98 strikeouts in 87.1 innings of relief.

MISSOURI Tigers

Mizzou got into the win column for the first time this season after earning three wins as it opened its home schedule last week … The Tigers swept a doubleheader against Eastern Michigan and then split a two-game weekend series with San Francisco before rain forced a cancellation of Sunday's rubber match with the Dons … Mizzou won a 1-0 decision in game one of the doubleheader with Eastern Michigan, scoring on freshman shortstop Josh Lester's first career RBI and then the Tigers tallied season-highs in hits (nine) and runs (seven) in the win in the nightcap of that doubleheader … The Tigers then ran their win streak to three games after a dominating start from Friday night starter Rob Zastryzny, who tallied his first complete game since April 27 of last season … He allowed two runs on three doubles in the first inning before settling in to allow just four USF baserunners over the final eight innings … Zastryzny struck out 10 Don batters and walked just one on Friday and allowed just six hits (only three over the final eight innings) … The Tigers then battled back to tie Saturday's game at 3-3 in the eighth on Dylan Kelly's RBI double, but the defense didn't help Mizzou in the ninth, committing two errors as USF plated five runs to take an 8-3 win … Sunday's game was rained out. After hitting just .190 in the first six games (0-6 in that span) Mizzou's bats woke up since returning home to Taylor Stadium as they posted a .280 BA as a team in the four games last season, sparked by a .455 clip from senior Scott Sommerfeld who had five hits and two RBI … Sommerfeld had been hitless in his first 13 at-bats of the season before the week began … Dylan Kelly hit .417 with five RBI last week, including a big three-run single in the second game against Eastern Michigan … All but one Tiger with at least five ABs last week had at least two hits … Mizzou also cut down on its strikeouts last week, averaging just 5.25 per game last week; before last week Mizzou was averaging 9.2 strikeouts per game. Dylan Kelly continues to lead the Tigers in batting at .414 this season and he now leads the team in hits (12), RBI (five), slugging (.448), OBP (.469) and OPS (.917) and he is second in runs scored. A pair of pitchers – Alec Rash and Jace James – still have yet to allow an earned run this season in a combined 16.2 IP … James hurled his second shutout start on Wednesday against Eastern Michigan, allowing just one hit over 6.0 innings … In his two starts this season, James has allowed just four hits in 11.0 innings pitched. Staying on the topic of starting pitching, that has clearly been the strength for the Tigers this season … Mizzou starters this season have allowed just 17 earned runs in 54.1 innings pitched this season, good for a 2.82 ERA … Five of the Tigers' 10 starts have either been shutout starts or one-run performances … In fact, Mizzou starters allowed just four earned runs in 25.1 innings pitched last week, good for a 1.43 ERA. Mizzou plays Jackson State at 4 p.m. Tuesday with Alec Rash scheduled to make his first career start in that game … The Tigers then open SEC play with South Carolina at Taylor Stadium next weekend.

SOUTH CAROLINA Gamecocks

South Carolina continued the 2013 season with five wins last week with a pair of victories vs. Ball State as well as a weekend sweep of Rider. Three of the five victories this week were shutouts. The Gamecocks are now 13-2 on the year. South Carolina hosts USC Upstate on Tuesday as well as Davidson on Wednesday before traveling this weekend to Missouri for a three-game SEC series to open league play. South Carolina has put together five shutouts in the last eight games. That is the most shutouts in a span of eight games by the Gamecocks since February of the 2004 season.Senior left-handed pitcher Nolan Belcher has pitched 18 consecutive scoreless innings on the mound for the Gamecocks. Belcher worked seven-plus innings and did not allow a run on eight hits with no walks and seven strikeouts in the 1-0 victory over Rider on Sunday. He is 3-1 on the year with a 1.63 ERA in four starts with 30 strikeouts to just one walks in 27.2 innings pitched. Opponents are batting just .215 against him. Sophomore shortstop Joey Pankake had a productive week at the plate as he hit .438 (7-for-16) in the five games with four homers, seven runs scored and nine RBI. Pankake hit a pair of three-run homers in each of the wins over Ball State. He then homered in both Saturday and Sunday's victories over Rider. For the season, Pankake is hitting .326 (15-for-46) with four homers, 14 RBI and 11 runs scored. He is currently on a seven-game hitting streak. Sophomore right-hander Evan Beal was effective in his first start of the year and only his second career start as a Gamecock. Beal worked six scoreless innings in the 2-0 win on Friday over Rider with just one hit and two walks allowed while striking out six batters. At one point in the contest, he retired 14 consecutive batters. The six strikeouts and six innings were both career highs. He is 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA in 9.2 innings with two walks and 11 strikeouts. Senior third baseman Chase Vergason has reached base safely in 14 consecutive games for the Gamecocks. Vergason is the team's second best hitter on the year with a .340 average (16-for-47) with nine RBI and 11 runs scored. His on-base percentage of .475 is among the team's leaders. Senior left-hander Tyler Webb continues to be dominant out of the bullpen. Webb had three scoreless appearances over the week and earned a pair of saves as well. Webb combined for shutouts in both Friday and Sunday's victories. He has pitched 9.1 scoreless innings in eight relief appearances with fives saves this season. Webb has 15 strikeouts to three walks, opponents are hitting .167 against him. Freshman infielder Max Schrock hit .353 (6-for-17) in the five games last week with three runs scored and three RBI. He also stole three bases. Schrock and Vergason lead the team with five multi-hit games with Schrock and LB Dantzler leading the team with three multi-RBI games apiece. Schrock is hitting .246 (14-for-57) with nine runs scored and 12 RBI on the year and has stole six bases in seven attempts as well. Freshman left-hander Jack Wynkoop retired the first 16 batters he faced in the 10-0 win over Ball State. He allowed just two hits in six innings of work with no walks and five strikeouts. Wynkoop is now 2-0 in two starts with 11.1 innings pitched. He has seven strikeouts and just one walk. Senior first baseman LB Dantzler saw his 11-game hitting streak snapped in Sunday's victory. Dantzler still leads the team in batting average at a .400 clip (20-for-50) with 12 runs scored, four homers and 15 RBI.

TENNESSEE Volunteers

Tennessee brought its overall record back to .500 at 7-7 by earning its first sweep of the 2013 season with three victories over Alcorn State this weekend at Lindsey Nelson Stadium in Knoxville. After a midweek contest against Belmont was rained out, the Volunteers exploded for 17 hits in a dominating 16-0 rout of the Braves on Friday night. Senior Zack Godley struck out eight over seven innings as he and two relievers combined on a three-hit shutout. Leading the offensive outburst were the first three hitters in the UT lineup - Taylor Smart, Will Maddox and Scott Price - as they combined to go 6-for-9 with nine RBIs, four walks and four runs scored. All three Vols posted 2-for-3 efforts with Price driving in two, Smart plating three runners and Maddox tying his career high with four RBIs. The following day, freshman Andrew Lee broke out in a big way, going 4-for-5 with five RBIs in a 13-6 triumph over Alcorn State. Two of hits came in the same inning as he had an RBI single and a three-run double during a nine-run third inning for the Big Orange. Fellow classmate Trevor Charpie came out of the bullpen to win his first collegiate contest, striking out five in five innings of relief. On Sunday, the Big Orange completed the sweep with a 12-4 victory. Once again, a true freshman earned his first career win as Aaron Quillen fanned seven over six innings. Andy Cox and Trevor Bettencourt followed with scoreless frames in the seventh and eighth before handing the ball off to Nick Williams who struck out the side on nine pitches to close out the sweep in dominating fashion. The weekend sweep was UT's first since winning all three games against Alabama last season. For the weekend, the Tennessee offense hit at a .398 clip with 16 extra-base hits and stolen bases in 14-of-15 attempts. Lee led the way, hitting a cool .500 (7-for-14) with five runs scored and a team-high seven RBIs. Pierce Bily also hit .500 (5-for-10) with five runs of his own, four RBIs, three walks and three stolen bases. On the mound, the Orange and White limited Alcorn State to just 15 hits and a .163 batting average over the course of the three-game set. Tennessee will close out a five-game homestand with a pair of midweek contests against Western Kentucky. Freshman right-hander Trevor Bettencourt will make his first career start on Tuesday, while the Vols will give the ball to first-year southpaw Andy Cox on Wednesday. Both games are set for 6 p.m. starts. Following those games, UT will hit the road to open Southeastern Conference play at Alabama, March 15-17.

TEXAS A&M Aggies

Rob Childress is up to 299 wins for his career... With his next win, he'll join Mark Johnson (876 – 1985-2005) and Tom Chandler (660 - 1959-84) as Aggie coaches to reach the 300-win plateau... Mikey Reynolds extended his hit streak to 16 games... During the streak, Reynolds is hitting .492 with 14 runs, three doubles, 10 RBI and nine stolen bases... He has nine multiple-hit games during the streak, including four three-hit games and one four-hit effort... Mikey Reynolds has reached safely in all 17 games this season... Excluding the last two Sundays, Texas A&M's pitching staff owns a 2.15 ERA and has walked just 41 batters in 134.0 innings... The last two Sundays, Aggie pitchers own a 12.86 ERA and have walked 19 in 14.0 innings... Kyle Martin made his 81st career appearance which ranks sixth on A&M's career charts... With his next appearance, Martin will tie Jason Meyer (82 – 2004-07) for fifth place on the Aggies' career list... A&M has not duplicated a batting order at any point during the season, using 17 different lineups... The Aggies have had seven different batters start games in the sixth, seventh and ninth spots in the batting order... Mikey Reynolds, Krey Bratsen and Daniel Mengden are the only players to start more than six games in the same spot in the batting order, with Reynolds starting all 17 in the leadoff spot, Bratsen starting 15 in the No. 2 spot and Mengden batting third in 11 games...The Aggies own a 30-16 advantage in two-out RBI on the season... A&M batters leading off an inning have reached base in 64 of 142 innings (.451)... Opponents have reached base in 54 of 148 innings (.365)... Through 17 games, the Aggies have allowed just one ninth-inning run (unearned) in 14.0 IP, limiting foes to a .200 batting average... Jason Jester has worked 6.2 scoreless innings in the ninth inning, limiting opponents to four hits in 24 at-bats... As a team, the Aggies are hitting .361 (26-for-72) in the first inning of games... A&M has scored 24.1 percent (19 of 79) of its runs in the first inning... Mikey Reynolds has been the Aggies' leadoff hitter in all 17 games this season and he has led off A&M's offensive games by hitting .467 (7-for-15) with one double on the year and owns a .529 on-base percentage leading off the game.

VANDERBILT Commodores

Vanderbilt won three games to push the winning streak to 13 games before dropping the series finale at #15 Oregon on Sunday... The #2 Commodores topped Eastern Illinois 8-3 on Tuesday in the Dores' fifth straight game to start with the temperature in the 30s... Freshman Walker Buehler earned his first collegiate win working six scoreless innings... Vince Conde collected a career-best three hits as Vandy cranked out 15 hits in the victory... Kevin Ziomek dominated again on Friday night, tossing his second straight complete game in a win at #15 Oregon... Ziomek punched out 13 batters and allowed only one run on two hits for his fourth win of the season... Over his last two starts Ziomek has 28 strikeouts in 18 innings while allowing one run on three hits and four walks... Tony Kemp and Jack Lupo each knocked in two runs... The Commodores clinched the series at #15 Oregon on Saturday with a 4-2 victory... Tony Kemp led the way with three hits as Tyler Beede notched his fourth win with 6.2 innings on the bump... Brian Miller tossed 2.1 innings to earn his third save... #15 Oregon rallied by Vanderbilt on Sunday to salvage the series finale 7-5... The Dores' bullpen was tagged for three unearned runs as the Ducks scored five runs on one hit in the eighth inning... Mike Yastrzemski drove in two runs, including a solo home run, and Tony Kemp picked up two more hits to push his series total to seven... Jared Miller took the loss with his walk scoring the winning run... This week Vanderbilt hosts Buffalo on Wednesday before traveling to Auburn to take on the Tigers in the first weekend of Southeastern Conference play.

SEC NOTES

SECond To None

In the past 23 years, the Southeastern Conference has been the top college baseball conference in the nation. Consider:

- Since 1990, 153 squads have received NCAA Tournament bids to lead the nation.
- A nation-leading 46 SEC teams have recorded College World Series berths since 1990, winning nine of the last 23 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011) and six runner-ups (1997, 2002, 2005, 2008,2011 and 2012).
- Ten different SEC squads (Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vanderbilt) have made CWS appearances since 1990, the most squads from a conference to appear in Omaha since that time.
- SEC squads have appeared in 27 of the last 28 College World Series, with the lone miss in 1992.
- Since 1990, 28 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins, while 113 have won 40+ games in a season, including six in 2012.

SEC IN THE COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Since 1990, the Southeastern Conference has been the most successful baseball conference in the country. The SEC has won nine of the last 23 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011), finished runner-up six times and has put more teams in the College World Series than any conference in the country. Take a look at the SEC's success in the last 23 years:

- Not counting games against each other, the SEC has posted a 70-56 record in the College World Series since 1990, a 55.6 winning percentage.
- Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 150 of the 330 games in the College World Series, an amazing 45.5 percent of games. SEC teams played in 12 of the 15 games of the 2004 College World Series and in 9 of the 15 in 2012.
- The SEC has sent 10 of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990.
- The SEC has played 43 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over 1.5 per year.

SEC FIRST ROUND MAJOR LEAGUE PICKS

Four SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2012 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Florida's Mike Zunino was picked third by the Seattle Mariners. Kevin Gausman of LSU was selected fourth by the Baltimore Orioles, while Mississippi State's Chris Stratton was 20th by the San Francisco Giants. Brian Johnson of Florida was selected 31st by the Boston Red Sox. With those four selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 93 total in the first round during that time.

SEC TIES

With the hiring of John Cohen at Mississippi State in the summer of 2008, there are now three SEC head coaches (David Perno-Georgia; Dave Van Horn-Arkansas) who played at and now are the head coach at their alma mater. Three other head coaches are former SEC players as well: Ole Miss' Mike Bianco (played at LSU), Alabama's Mitch Gaspard (played two years at LSU) and LSU's Paul Mainieri (played one season at LSU).

SEC BEGINS 78TH SEASON OF CONFERENCE PLAY

This marks the 79th season of conference play in the SEC. In 1933, baseball became one of the first sports in which the SEC crowned a champion. The league did not sponsor teams in 1945 and 1946 due to World War II.

The SEC standings below include all regular-season games from 1933-2012, with SEC Tournament games counting in 1993 and 1994.

SEC IN MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

The Southeastern Conference has long been tapped as a resource for the major leagues, dating back as far as the 1800's. According to the records of each of the league's current institutions, 420 former players have spent time in the majors through the end of the 2012 season.

On opening day of the 2012 season, 45 former SEC players were listed on MLB opening day 25-man rosters. Ole Miss led the league with six, while Tennessee and Vanderbilt had five each. Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and LSU each have four.

2012 SEC BASEBALL ATTENDANCE BREAKDOWN

2012 SEC ATTENDANCE LEADERS

June 12 - FINAL

Year after year, the SEC continues to be the benchmark in paid college baseball attendance. The SEC and its member schools own virtually all regular season, conference tournament, NCAA Regional and Super Regional attendance records. The SEC and one of its institutions have led the NCAA in total and average attendance for the last 15 seasons in a row, and 20 of the last 26 years. In 2005, the SEC set a goal to reach the 1.5 million attendance mark. The drive was renewed and continued for the 2006 season, a season which saw over 1.6 million fans at SEC ballparks. In 2007, the SEC drew nearly 1.7 million and averaged for 4,000 per game for first time in history. New records were once again set in 2011 as the league drew over two million for the first time ever, as well as nearly 5,000 per game.

2013 SEC BASEBALL TELEVISION SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

'Conference Package to Air Over 70 Broadcasts'

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. -- The Southeastern Conference has announced its 2013 SEC Baseball television schedule, the fourth under the league's 15-year agreement with ESPN. The entire broadcast package will include over 70 contests. In addition, all games from the 2013 SEC Tournament will continue to be televised, with the championship game airing again nationally on ESPN2. The semifinals will also air nationally for the first time, which will be broadcast on ESPNEWS.

The package is derived from broadcasts on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPNEWS, Fox Sports and CSS. In addition, WatchESPN/ESPN3 will also stream most contests live online.

"Both the success and popularity of baseball in our conference continue to grow," said SEC Commissioner Mike Slive. "We are pleased to be able to offer an increased amount of television coverage of SEC Baseball to our teams and to our fans. This continues to move our baseball exposure to new levels and to a national audience."

SEC schools maintain the rights to air additional games not included in the SEC package with various television outlets, including official SEC regional television outlets. More than 60 additional games will be broadcast via those means, bringing the total number of SEC baseball games broadcast in 2013 to over 130.

ESPNU's Thursday Night SEC Baseball Game of the Week will begin Thursday, March 28, at 7:30 p.m. ET and run eight weeks through May 16. The first Thursday night game will feature SEC newcomer Texas A&M at South Carolina. The weekly telecast will feature a live 30-minute pregame show from ESPNU studios at 7 p.m. ET, focusing on baseball news and updates from around the league. ESPN networks will air 27 SEC baseball broadcasts this season, all of which will broadcast nationally.

All games on ESPN platforms will be broadcast in high definition.

The Southeastern Conference

Setting the Standard for Intercollegiate Athletics

Baseball

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 79-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC posted another tremendous season in 2012 as the conference had eight teams earn selection to NCAA postseason play with South Carolina, Arkansas and Florida advancing to the College World Series. A SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 27 of the last 28 years. South Carolina advanced to the National Championship Series, marking the eighth time since 2000 a SEC team played for the national championship in Omaha and fifth in a row. Mississippi State won the SEC tournament title over Vanderbilt. LSU won the SEC regular-season title with a 19-11 conference record, while South Carolina won the Eastern Division with a 18-11 record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts 12 former National Players of the Year (Florida's Mike Zunino won in 2012), 11 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 10 Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. Also, 155 student-athletes have been named first-team All-American, six of which came in 2012.

Four SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2012 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Florida's Mike Zunino was picked third by the Seattle Mariners. Kevin Gausman of LSU was selected fourth by the Baltimore Orioles, while Mississippi State's Chris Stratton was 20th by the San Francisco Giants. Brian Johnson of Florida was selected 31st by the Boston Red Sox. With those four selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 93 total in the first round during that time.

The SEC drew a record of nearly 2.2 million fans to its on-campus ballparks in 2012, the sixth year in a row to draw over 1.6 million. Seven SEC teams drew in excess of 100,000 fans to their parks in 2012. The SEC averaged a record 5,181 fans per game in 2012, the sixth straight year to exceed the 4,000 mark and first over 5,000. The SEC Baseball Tournament drew a new record-high of 129,112 fans in 2012, 7,595 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. The SEC Championship Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN2 for the third straight year.

Notes

- The SEC has sent 46 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has been to Omaha 12 times, Florida eight times, South Carolina six times, Georgia five times, Mississippi State four times, while Alabama, Arkansas and Tennessee have been three times each. Auburn has been twice.
- SEC teams have won nine of the last 22 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011) and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner up six times in that time, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011 and 2012.
- SEC teams are 95-80 since 1990 in Omaha, a 55.9 winning percentage. Not counting games against each other, the SEC has posted a 70-56 record in the College World Series since 1990, a 55.6 winning percentage.
- The SEC has played 43 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over 1.5 per year. Only five times, 1992,1994, 2003, 2006 and 2007 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.
- The SEC has averaged nearly eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 150 of the 330 games in the College World Series, an amazing 45.5 percent of games. SEC teams played in 9 of the 15 in 2012.
- The SEC has sent 10 of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Ole Miss has played in four Super Regionals the last eight seasons.
- Since 1990, 153 SEC squads have been invited to the NCAA Tournament, an average over seven per season. The SEC set yet another NCAA record in 2004, 2005 and 2008 with nine teams earning postseason births. The SEC also had a NCAA-record five teams earn regional host sites in 2004 and 2006.
- The SEC has had an NCAA-high 11 different teams compete in the 59-year history of the College World Series. In those appearances, the conference has registered a 117-119 record, a 49.6 winning percentage.
- Since 1990, 28 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins, while 113 have won 40+ games in a season, including six in 2012.
- The SEC posted a 252-89 record against non-conference foes in 2012, a 73.9 winning percentage. Since 1990, the SEC has accumulated a 5559-2087-4 record against non-conference teams, a 72.7 winning percentage.
- SEC teams have also been strong in the polls. Since 1990, 111 conference teams have appeared in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.
