BROOKINGS, S.D. – The No. 1 Texas A&M equestrian team got off to a strong start for the 2012-13 season with a 15-5 win in the opener at South Dakota State on Saturday.

The Aggies swept the fences competition, 5-0, and downed the Jackrabbits, 4-1 in horsemanship for an early lead, as the events were held at the same time. Shelby Lawson, Kori Pickett, Kat Barkema, Emily Williams and Leah Chenelle each outscored their opponents by nine points or more in the strong over fences showing. Barkema took her second-ever MVP in that discipline.

In horsemanship, the Aggies took an early 3-0 jump on the Jackrabbits with wins by Amanda Brightwell, Molli Jacobs and Cassie Mantor, before Laura Brainard dropped a 69-66.5 decision to SDSU's Kelsey Champagne. A Carey Nowacek victory sealed the deal, however, and horsemanship took an easy 4-1 win. Jacobs earned her career first MVP award with the ride.

With A&M striding to a 9-1 lead after fences and horsemanship, equitation on the flat and reining got underway simultaneously. Each discipline ended with a 3-2 A&M victory after close competitions.

Paige Russell secured a three-point victory over SDSU's Santana Wright on the flat before Kelsi Shevlin fell to flat MVP Lauren Kerr, 78-76. Emily Williams rode to a 10-point win as the Aggies ended the first round of flat ahead 2-1.

South Dakota State tied things up on the flat, 2-2, when Jackrabbit rider Megan Violand defeated Haley Buchmiller, 66-58, but A&M's Ellie Wilkins eked out a 69-68 win over Megan Shiffman and the Aggies secured a 3-2 win on the flat.

On the reining side, Emma Myers took a 70.5-67 win and was followed by Lindsey Bernbaum and Laura Sumrall who each came out of their rides with victories. South Dakota State took the final two rides, over Aggies Ashley Skold and Becca Murray, but the damage had already been done and A&M swept the four disciplines after a 3-2 reining win.

Records: Auburn (1-0); Oklahoma State (0-1)

AUBURN, Ala. – The No. 3 Auburn equestrian team defeated No. 5 Oklahoma State, 10-9, Friday at the Auburn University Horse Center in the Tigers' season-opening meet.

The Tigers rode to high marks in each discipline and pulled out the narrow victory behind strong rides from their veterans and freshmen. Three of the meet's four MVP awards went to Auburn riders.

Auburn defeated the Cowgirls 6-4 in Hunt Seat, but fell 5-4 in Western.

The Tigers fell 3-2 in equitation over fences, but earned points from MVP

Jennifer Waxman and freshman Elizabeth Benson. Waxman defeated OSU's Sarah

Gesick, 92-85, and Benson picked up the point with an 86-84 win over Samantha

Harrison.

Auburn and Oklahoma State tied, 2-2, in horsemanship, as Katsy Leeman defeated Lindsey McMullen, 78-76, and Katie Buff defeated Ty Paris, 76.5-74.

Oklahoma State led, 5-4, at intermission, but the Tigers rallied in equitation on the flat and performed well in reining.

Auburn handily defeated the Cowgirls, 4-1, in equitation on the flat behind strong rides from Jennifer Delman, Christina Lin, Lindsay Portela and Benson, who picked up her first career MVP honor in her first collegiate meet.

Delman defeated Amy White, 95-69, Lin defeated Ellie Sparks, 94-80, Portela defeated Ali Rose, 86-78, and Benson defeated Andrea Robbins, 97-90.

The Tigers fell, 3-2, in reining, but did enough to seal the victory as MVP Indy Roper defeated Justine Peters, 71.5-71, and Cheyenne Cracraft defeated Jenna Blumer, 71.5-71.

BLYTHEWOOD, S.C. - No. 4 South Carolina officially began the SEC era on Saturday, as the Gamecocks defeated No. 5 Oklahoma State, 13-7. The Gamecocks are now 1-0 on the 2012-2013 season, while the Cowgirls fall to 0-2.

The Gamecocks took an early lead as Carolina's reiners took three of five points from the Cowgirls. Sophomore Layla Choate scored South Carolina's first point of the season as she scored an event-high 73.5 to defeat the Cowgirls' Erin Willoughby. Fellow sophomore Cody McMillion followed Choate with a 69-61.5 win over Justine Peters, and senior captain Audrey Jewell scored the third point with a win over Taylor New.

Carolina took command of Saturday's meet as both teams moved down to the lower ring to compete in Equitation Over Fences. Freshman Sally Henry made the most of her Gamecock debut, winning her point with an event-high score of 88. Henry was named Most Outstanding Player for the event as she helped lead the jumpers to a 5-0 sweep over OK-State.

2012 All-American Katherine Schmidt began her 2-for-2 day with an 85-40 victory, followed up by redshirt freshman Samantha Smith, who made her Gamecock debut with a three-point victory over her Cowgirl opponent. Senior Kimberly McCormack and redshirt sophomore Amber Henter both posted back-to-back scores of 87, as both riders edged their Oklahoma State opponents.

In Horsemanship, junior Katie Kopf and sophomore Sam Chiodo scored points for the Gamecocks. Kopf's score of 79 is the highest Horsemanship score by a Gamecock in at least the last four seasons, as she edged the Cowgirls' Lauren Halvorson, who scored 76.5. Chiodo scored the second-highest score of the event and the highest Horsemanship score by a sophomore in at least four seasons as she dropped Oklahoma State's Marissa Dalton, 78.5-77.

Up 10-5, the Gamecocks wasted no time shutting the door on the Cowgirls, as Schmidt completed her two-point day with a 77-64 win, giving Carolina its 11th point of the meet, eliminating any possibility of an OK-State comeback.

BLYTHEWOOD, S.C. - Competing in its first-ever Southeastern Conference equestrian meet on Thursday, No. 2 South Carolina edged out third-ranked Auburn, 10-9, at One Wood Farm in Blythewood. The Gamecocks are now 2-0 overall with a 1-0 record in SEC play, while the Tigers fall to 1-1 and 0-1 in the conference. South Carolina jumped out to an early 3-2 lead on Thursday, the Gamecock reining team put on a dominating performance. Senior captain Audrey Jewell scored the first point with a 69of 7.5 victory over Auburn's Cheyenne Cracraft, setting the tone for a meet in which South Carolina trailed only once, and that was for 2.5 minutes. Sophomore Layla Choate scored the second point of the meet, as she defeated the Tigers' Stephanie Rucci, 71.5-71. After Auburn won the next to points to tie the score at 4-4, sophomore Cody McMillion reclaimed the lead for the Gamecocks as she picked up a 71-69 win over Hailey Munger.

Holding a one-point lead, Thursday's meet moved down to the jumping ring, where South Carolina and Auburn each claimed two points. Auburn won the first point of the event, followed by a no-decision as redshirt freshman Samantha Smith held Auburn's Griffin Knight to an 80-80 tie, meaning neither team won the point. Auburn won the next point to give the Tigers their first and only lead of the meet of 4-3, but the lead evaporated as freshman Sally Henry and redshirt sophomore Amber Henter combined to win their rides by 20-points. Henry delivered a ten-point victory over Auburn's Christina Lin to the meet at 4-4, and the Gamecocks reclaimed the lead a few minutes later when Henter, South Carolina's Hunt Seat team captain, dropped the Tigers' Megan Bifano by ten points.

In Equitation on the Flat, the Gamecocks won three of five points as Henry completed her 2-for-2 day with a 12-point victory over Claire Connaghan. Senior Kimberly McCormack followed Henry with a 14-point win over the Tigers' Jennifer Delman. Junior Kelsey Hart's 75-73 win over Lin gave the Gamecocks a critical late point in Thursday's meet, and secured a 5-4 win for the Hunt Seat team, now 2-0 on the season.

In Horsemanship, Auburn won three of five points, but that would not be enough to take the lead.

After the Tigers won the first point, redshirt Johnna Letchworth picked up her first win of the season with a half-point victory over Auburn's Katsy Leeman, giving the Gamecocks an 8-6 lead. Hart's victory over Lin in Equitation on the Flat extend Carolina's lead to 9-6, with Auburn still in contention for a comeback win.

The Tigers' hopes were dashed moments after Hart's win, as sophomore Sam Chiodo picked up a 75.5-71 victory over Griffin Knight, giving South Carolina its tenth point of the meet and securing the win for the Gamecocks.

With the meet already decided, the Tigers won the remaining three points, as the Gamecocks are off to a 2-0 start for the second straight season.

The Aggies swept the Most Outstanding Player (MOP) awards as sophomore Haley Buchmiller was honored in equitation on the flat and junior Shelby Lawson took the award in equitation over fences.

The competition started with fences, where the SMU took an early 1-0 lead. The Aggies responded with a pair of wins by senior Kori Pickett and sophomore Leah Chenelle before Lawson had her MOP ride. The junior's 90-point score is a season high in fences. With A&M in a 3-2 lead, senior Emily Williams, who is now 4-0 on the season, gave the Aggies the push they needed for the 4-2 fences win.

Wins by freshman Hannah Williams, Buchmiller and Emily Williams in flat secured the overall hunt seat victory as the Aggies took a 7-3 lead in the meet. Junior Ellie Wilkins took a two-point edge on her opponent to ensure the victory in flat before junior Paige Russell earned a win to give A&M a final 5-1 win in flat and a 9-3 victory over the Mustangs overall.

BRYAN, Texas – The No. 4 Texas A&M Equestrian team (3-2, 0-2 SEC) won a western meet with No. 8 TCU (2-1), 5-4, and swept the MOP awards Friday at the Brazos Valley Expo Complex.

Horsemanship got the Aggies off to a good start with a 4-1 victory. Senior Laura Brainard was distinguished as the Most Outstanding Player (MOP) with a 74.5 ride. This is the third straight MOP award for Brainard, who leads the Aggies with three honors on the season.

Seniors Carey Nowacek and Amanda Brightwell each had the highest horsemanship scores on the day, defeating opponents with a pair of 75.5 tallies. Junior Caroline Ammons also had a win in horsemanship, with a score of 72.5.

In reining, TCU took a 2-0 lead after the first three pairings but a .5-point victory by Ashley Skold narrowed the scoring gap and secured an overall western win for the Aggies with the 5-3 lead. Skold's ride earned the sophomore her first MOP award of the season. TCU took the last ride and won reining, 3-1, but it wasn't enough as A&M earned a 5-4 win over the Horned Frogs.

The Aggies and Horned Frogs also competed in a hunter seat exhibition meet, with A&M edging TCU, 4-1. A&M swept equitation on the flat, 3-0, before the teams tied, 1-1 in equitation over fences. A narrow 151-150 raw score difference gave the Aggies the victory in fences. Freshmen Hannah Williams (fences) and Marlena Parker (flat) were MOPs for A&M in the hunt seat exhibition.

Earlier in the day A&M defeated SMU in a hunt seat competition, 9-3, and swept the MOP awards as junior Shelby Lawson (fences) and sophomore Haley Buchmiller (flat) took honors.

BISHOP, Ga. - No. 2 South Carolina jumped out to an early 4-1 lead against No. 1 Georgia on Friday, and never relinquished the lead, as the Gamecocks upset the Bulldogs, 11-8, at the UGA Equestrian Complex. The Gamecocks are now 3-0 overall and 2-0 in SEC play, while the Bulldogs fall to 2-1 overall and 1-1 in conference play.

Friday's loss marked the second time Georgia had dropped a regular season meet at home. The Bulldogs were 50-1 during the regular season at home entering Friday's meet. For South Carolina, Friday's win marks the Gamecocks' second straight at the UGA Equestrian Complex, as South Carolina upset then-No. 1 Georgia on March 31 to win the Southern Equestrian Championship.

The Gamecocks jumped out to an early lead on Friday, as South Carolina won four of five points in Equitation Over Fences.

Samantha Smith, Kimberly McCormack, Katherine Schmidt, and Amber Henter all won their rides, giving the Gamecocks an early 4-1 lead. Smith started with a 78-75 win over Megan Southam to improve to 2-1-1 on the season. McCormack followed Smith with a 78-74 victory over Georgia's Olivia Dorey, improving her jumping record to 3-0. Hunt Seat captain Amber Henter improved her record to 3-0 as she picked up a one-point victory over the Bulldogs' Carly Anthony. Georgia's Abby O'Mara prevented the Gamecock sweep, as she defeated South Carolina freshman Sally Henry, 84-71.

In Reining, the Gamecocks won three of five points, giving the Gamecocks a 7-3 lead at the halfway point.

Trailing by five, the Bulldogs came back, winning three of five points in Equitation on the Flat to cut South Carolina's lead to 9-6.

BRYAN, Texas - The No. 4 Equestrian team (4-2, 0-2 SEC) defeated Fresno State (0-3), 17-6, Saturday at the Brazos County Expo Complex.

The Aggies continued their Most-Outstanding-Player (MOP) domination, sweeping the four awards on the day. Emily Williams (equitation over fences), Paige Russell (equitation on the flat), Caroline Ammons (horsemanship) and Ashley Skold (reining) were named the best rider in their individual events. A&M has won 15 of a possible 20 MOP awards on the season.

The day began with over fences and horsemanship competing simultaneously. Over fences rode to a 3-3 draw with the Bulldogs, including Williams' fifth win of the season for a perfect 5-0 record. Wins by Carey Nowacek, Ammons and Molli Jacobs in horsemanship got the Aggies off to a good start before a Laura Brainard victory sealed the deal and gave A&M a 7-5 lead on the day.

The flat team gave Éresno State no chance, sweeping the event 6-0. Russell earned the highest score in the event, a season second-best 85, in addition to her first MOP of the season. Russell owns both of the Aggies' top two scores this season.

A 4-1 reining win secured the 17-6 win over the Bulldogs. Laura Sumrall, Logan Pluhar, Skold and Becca Murray each took victories in reining

BRYAN, Texas - The fourth-ranked Texas A&M equestrian team suffered an 8-11 loss to No. 1 South Carolina Friday in the Aggies' first-ever home Southeastern Conference (SEC) meet and the final show of the fall season at the Brazos Valley Expo Complex.

Trailing 3-7 after the first two events, the Aggies mounted a comeback to end the meet but it wasn't enough as the top-ranked Gamecocks remained undefeated with the win.

Equitation over fences and Horsemanship started the day off simultaneously, and South Carolina picked up wins in both events, edging the Aggies 3-2 in over fences and taking a 4-1 victory in horsemanship.

Marlena Parker, who had the highest score of the day in fences (85) was one of two Aggie victories in that event as Shelby Lawson also scored a point for A&M with an 84-81 win. Parker was the fences Most Outstanding Player (MOP).

In horsemanship, Molli Jacobs was the only A&M rider to defeat her opponent, earning a 77-76 victory in the second-to-last ride of the event. Jacobs' score was also a meet high in horsemanship and gave the sophomore MOP honors.

The Aggies rode to a draw in equitation on the flat on a pair of wins by Kelsi Shevlin and Paige Russell. A 3-2 A&M win in reining narrowed the scoring gap for the final 8-11 tally. Ashley Skold, Becca Murray and Lindsey Bernbaum each recorded victories for the Aggies in the final event.

BROOKINGS, S.D. - The No. 3 University of Georgia equestrian team fell to South Dakota State. The Georgia and South Dakota State competition ended in an 8-8 tie, but the Jackrabbits came away with a 1,201-1,198 win in the raw score.

Carly Anthony, Sara Parr and McKenzie Lantz each earned MOP honors in Georgia's loss South Dakota State. Anthony's MOP ride came in a 78-74 win over her opponent. Parr earned the highest score in Horsemanship, with her 74.5-71.5 win over Kelsey Champagne. Lantz rounded out the MOP honors with her score of 72.5 in Reining.

The competition started Friday with the Bulldogs and Jackrabbits ending in a 4-4 tie on the Hunt Seat side. Anthony got things started with a 78-74 win over Lauren Kerr that put Georgia up 1-0 in Equitation over Fences. Santana Wright picked up an 80-77 win for South Dakota State that tied the event at one. Kylee Arbuckle's 74.5-70 win over Jordan Goodall put Georgia on top 2-1. Olivia Dorey sealed the 3-1 win in Equitation over Fences with a 75-65 win over Marielle Golden.

SDSU finished with a 3-1 win in Equitation on the Flat, with Caitlyn Francis scoring the lone Georgia point. Megan Schiffman and Kerr earned the first two points for the Jackrabbits, before Francis outscored Megan Violand 74-73 to bring the score to 2-1. Wright scored the final point of the day with an 80-78 win that sealed the 3-1 victory.

The teams waited until Saturday to compete in the Western ring, with the teams tying in both Reining and Horsemanship. SDSU took a 1-0 lead after Shelby Webb outscored Rachel Kolb 71.5-70.5. Parr rode to MOP honors with her 74.5-71.5 win over Champagne to tie the score at one. Paige Stawicki's 73-72.5 win over Lexus Hoffman allowed the Bulldogs to take a 2-1 lead, before Danielle Baker won the final ride that resulted in a 2-2 tie.

In Reining, Lauren Tieche got things started with a 72.71.5 win over Jessie Miller. South Dakota State's Jana Basler answered with a 71-69 win that tied Reining at one, before Laura Dunlavy rode to a 71-70.5 win that put the Jackrabbits up 2-1. Lantz closed the competition out with her MOP-winning 72.5-72 win over Raivenne Scott.

WACO, Texas - No. 1 South Carolina suffered its first loss of the season on Saturday, as the Gamecocks fell, 9-8, at No. 8 Baylor at the Willis Family Equestrian Center. The Gamecocks are now 4-1 overall and 3-0 in SEC play. Saturday's loss snaps the Gamecocks' ten-meet winning streak that dated back to last season.

South Carolina started strong on Saturday, jumping out to a 3-1 lead after Equitation Over Fences. Hunt Seat captain Amber Henter improved to 5-0 this season as she cruised to an 84-78 win over Paige Parker. Following a tie between freshman Sally Henry and Baylor's Taylor Brown, the Gamecocks won two of the next three points to close out the event.

Redshirt freshman Samantha Smith picked up a 12-point victory over Baylor's AshleyAnn McGehee, as Smith won, 83-71. Senior Kimberly McCormack dropped the Bears' Sue Carol Thompson, 83-76.

Baylor made a comeback in Reining, winning the event, 3-1, and tying up the meet at 4-4 overall. South Carolina's only Reining point came from senior Amanda Pope, who defeated the Bears' Shelbey Jackson. Sophomore Layla Choate and Baylor's Parris Rice each scored an 80 in their head-to-head, resulting in a tie.

Tied 4-4 at the halfway point, Baylor took control of Saturday's meet with a 4-1 victory in Equitation on the Flat. The Bears won four of five points, but South Carolina's Katherine Schmidt prevented the shutout as she picked up a 72-63 win over Taylor Brown.

Trailing 8-5, South Carolina still had a chance to win the meet, but needed to hold the Bears to only one point in Horsemanship. Baylor had a rider score a zero earlier in the day, so the Gamecocks held the tiebreaker if the meet ended in a 9-9 tie.

The Gamecocks cut Baylor's lead to two points as sophomore Sam Chiodo beat the Bears' Ashley Garza, 75-74.5. Freshman Kelsey Urban extended her three-meet winning streak on Saturday as she defeated Mary Brown, 75.5-73. All three of Urban's victories this season have come on the road (at Georgia, at Texas A&M, at Baylor).

Baylor made it a 9-7 meet a few minutes later when the Bears' Bryn Lyndley won her point, meaning the Gamecocks would need to win the final two points outright in order to force a tiebreaker. South Carolina redshirt junior Johnna Letchworth had a strong ride in the first group, as she scored a 77.5, but Baylor's Parris Rice scored a 77.5 in the second group, securing upset victory.

WILMER, Texas - Top-ranked South Carolina overcame a one-point deficit twice during Sunday's meet at No. 10 Southern Methodist, but the Gamecocks lost their fall season finale to the Mustangs, 5-4, at Buck Branch Farm. The Gamecocks end the fall with a 4-2 overall record and a perfect 3-0 record in SEC play.

South Carolina opened the meet by winning the first two points, as redshirt sophomore Amber Henter and senior Kimberly McCormack both won their rides. Henter improved to 6-0 on the season she dropped the Mustangs' Rachel Reid, 86-77. McCormack followed with an 81-78 victory over SMU's Alex Butterworth. SMU rallied and took a 3-2 lead as the Mustangs won the final three points of the event.

Sophomore Katherine Schmidt tied the meet at 3-3 when she opened the second round of Equitation on the Flat with a 90-81 victory over Erin Nelson. Schmidt's event-high score earned her the Most Outstanding Player award on the Flat. SMU jumped back in front 4-3, but freshman Sally Henry evened the score again as she defeated the Mustangs' Lucy Blundon. After freshman Samantha Kraus rode SMU's Greer Hidnle to an 80-80-tie, the Mustangs clinched the meet by winning the final Flat point.

FRESNO, Calif. - The No. 3 University of Georgia equestrian team opened its spring schedule with a 12-4 win over Fresno State on Saturday afternoon in Fresno, Calif., to improve to 4-3 on the season. Highlighting the competition were MOP honors by Carly Anthony (Equitation Over Fences), Maria Salazar (Horsemanship) and McKenzie Lantz (Reining).

Georgia got off to a quick start by sweeping Fresno State 4-0 in Equitation Over Fences. Abby O'Mara got things started with a 75-69 win over Belle Calkin before Kylee Arbuckle secured an 83-65 win over Dayle Fischer to put Georgia up 2-0. Olivia Dorey gave the Bulldogs a 3-0 lead with a win over Kimberly Hewson Budnik. Anthony wrapped up the event with her MOP-winning 88-40 win over Hillary West.

Holding a 4-0 lead in the competition, Georgia rode to a 3-1 win in Horsemanship, highlighted by Salazar's MOP-winning performance. Paige Stawicki put the Bulldogs up 1-0 with her 75.5-72 win over Shauna Woodward. Salazar followed with a 77-70.5 win over Christa Beezley for MOP honors. Megan Hawkins handed Lauren Crivelli a 76.5-75 loss that put Georgia up 3-0 in Horsemanship and 7-0 overall. Kirsten McKillop secured FSU's first point of the day with her 75.5-72 win that brought the overall score to 7-1.

Georgia fell behind 2-0 in Equitation on the Flat before Anthony and Grace Rogers recorded the final two points of the event for the Bulldogs to even the score. Macy Wilson and Lanie Madrazo scored winning rides for Fresno State before Anthony answered with a 78-77 win over West that brought the event score to 2-1. The Bulldogs used Rogers' 78-76 win over Hewson Budnik to even the score in Equitation on the Flat 2-2 and take a 9-3 overall lead.

The Bulldogs took an early 2-0 lead in Reining to extend its overall lead to 11-3 with wins by Sami Belcher and Lauren Tieche. Belcher opened competition with a 72-69 win over McKillop before Tieche rode to a 72-69 win over Sydney Coletti. Crivelli scored Fresno State's first point in Reining with her 74-72 win. Lantz wrapped up competition with her 71-70.5, MOP-earning win over Ciara Kozlowski that secured Georgia's 3-1 win in Reining and 12-4 meet win.
