2012 SEC TOURNAMENT

May 22-27 • Regions Park • Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament returns for a 15th straight year to Regions Park in the south-Birmingham city of Hoover, Ala., May 22-27.

The SEC Tournament will begin in 2012 to follow a 10-team double elimination format that is modeled in a similar fashion to previous SEC Tournament and College World Series brackets. The tournament field includes the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions plus eight at-large bids based on conference winning percentage.

The ten teams are seeded 1-10 with the two divisional champions guaranteed of the top two seeds and first-round byes. Games played from Tuesday to Friday are double elimination with single elimination starting on Saturday. Last season, Florida defeated Vanderbilt 5-0 in front of a national television audience on ESPN2 to claim SEC Tournament title.

Regions Park currently serves as home of the Double-A Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox) of the Southern League. The stadium also serves as host of the NCAA Men's Soccer Final Four, as well as the former home field to the nationally renowned Hoover Buccaneer high school football program.

Located eight miles south of Birmingham, Regions Park seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate over 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005 and a second-level pressbox expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $6 million renovation project. A new HD video scoreboard was added in 2008, while the SEC introduced the nation to a 'pitch clock' in 2010.

The 2011 SEC Baseball Tournament, drew nearly 100,000 fans. Six times time in the last nine years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance. The 2010 event drew nearly 130,000 fans, an all-time record.

The SEC is scheduled to keep its baseball tournament in Hoover at Regions Park through 2016 under the current contract.

All games of the tournament have been televised in high definition since 2008, with ESPN2 set to broadcast the championship game nationally for the third straight year in 2012.

Team-By-Team Notes

ALABAMA Crimson Tide

Alabama wrapped up the 2012 campaign with a 3-1 record this past week … The Crimson Tide defeated Troy in the final non-conference game of the season on Tuesday, then posted a series win over Georgia at home on the weekend … with two wins over Georgia, Alabama finished 11th in the Southeastern Conference with a 9-21 record … Alabama collected all its conference wins at home, posting a 9-6 SEC record at Sewell-Thomas Stadium … Alabama posted SEC series wins over Georgia, Auburn, and Vanderbilt … Alabama missed the SEC tournament for the first time since 2004, snapping a streak of seven years … UA had made an appearance in the last four NCAA tournaments before missing this season … UA posted a .302 average for the weekend, which included a .295 average against the Bulldogs … The 4-0 shutout of Georgia on Friday was the first SEC shutout of the season for the Tide, and just the fourth of the season overall … the series win over Georgia marked the seventh straight in Tuscaloosa for Alabama over the Bulldogs, which dates back to the 1997 season. Jon Keller recorded his third straight quality start, and fourth of the season, when he matched his career-highs with 7.0 scoreless innings and six strikeouts on Friday … Keller allowed five hits for a .192 opponent's batting average in the combined shutout of the Bulldogs … Jake Hubbard threw two scoreless inning to close out the Friday night shutout of the Bulldogs … Hubbard had two strikeouts in his team-leading 29th appearance of the season … Hubbard also threw 3.0 scoreless innings against Troy, allowing a hit and a walk with three strikeouts … Jay Shaw picked up his first win of the season, and second of his career, after throwing 1.2 innings in relief on Saturday ... Shaw did not allow a hit while allowing one walk in his time on the mound … Justin Kamplain threw 5.0 scoreless innings in relief in game one of the series, allowing four hits with two walks and six strikeouts … Trey Pilkington recorded his second save of the season with a scoreless ninth inning against Georgia on Saturday. Brett Booth paced the Tide with a .438 average for the week, recording seven hits in 16 at-bats with two doubles and four runs scored … Jared Reaves was 5-for-16 (.313) with three RBI for the week, and finished the season as the team leader with 34 RBI … In his final week in an Alabama uniform, Taylor Dugas was 5-for-14 (.357) with a triple, two runs scored and three RBI … Dugas finished the season with a team-high .343 batting average … Ben Moore hit .385 (5-13) with three RBI, while posting a .529 on-base percentage … As a freshman, Moore finished second on the team with a .342 average and hit .345 and started all 30 games in SEC play … In his final UA at-bat, Jon Kelton delivered a game-winning, two-out, two-run single with the base loaded in the bottom of the eighth inning, to lift Alabama to a 6-4 win over Georgia on Saturday … James Tullidge was 4-for-12 (.333) in the four games to finish the season with a .337 average … Tullidge led the team with a .352 average during SEC play.

ARKANSAS Razorbacks

For the seventh time in program history, the Arkansas baseball team advanced to the College World Series. The Razorbacks advanced to the semifinals of the CWS, tying the second-best finish in program history. Arkansas won its first two games of the College World Series for the first time since 1979, defeating Kent State in the opener and snapping South Carolina's 22-game postseason win streak with a 2-1 win in game two. The appearance in the CWS capped an impressive postseason run for the Razorbacks, which included wins at the Houston Regional, hosted by No. 8 Rice, and taking two of three games from No. 4 national seed Baylor in the Waco Super Regional...The Razorbacks finished the 2012 season with a 46-22 record. The 46 wins were the most for Arkansas under head coach Dave Van Horn and the most in a season since the 1990 team won 47 games. Overall, the 46 wins were the sixth-highest single-season total in school history...On the strength of its semi-final appearance in the College World Series, Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all of the major national college baseball polls. The Razorbacks were ranked third in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, in the NCBWA poll and in the Collegiate Baseball poll. Arkansas finished the season sixth in the Baseball America top 25... The 2012 Arkansas pitching staff will go down as one of the best in program history. Razorback pitching combined for a 2.83 team ERA in 2012, the second-lowest single-season ERA in program history. Arkansas pitching had 10 shutouts, which also ranked as the second-highest total in a season. As dominant as the Razorback pitching staff was during the regular season, the staff was even better in the NCAA Tournament. In 10 NCAA Tournament games, Arkansas' pitching staff had a team ERA of 1.92. In the College World Series, the Razorbacks compiled a team ERA of 1.80...The Arkansas baseball team has grown accustomed to playing one- or two-run games in the last two seasons. In 2012, the Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those 32 games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run...Winning a game 1-0 is rare in college baseball, but is even rarer in the NCAA Tournament. Arkansas accomplished the feat twice during the 2012 NCAA Tournament with both wins coming on the opponent's home field. The Razorbacks defeated Rice, 1-0, in the Houston Regional and downed Baylor, 1-0, in the decisive game three to advance to the College World Series. How rare are 1-0 wins in the NCAA Tournament? Before the 2012 season, there had only been nine 1-0 games since the tournament expanded to its current format in 1999. There were three 1-0 games in the 2012 NCAA Tournament with Arkansas accounting for two of those. Austin Peay had the other 1-0 win, defeating Indiana State...Arkansas head coach Dave Van Horn reached a milestone with Arkansas' victory over Rice on June 2. The victory was the 400th for Coach Van Horn in his tenure as the Razorbacks' skipper. Following the 2012 season, Coach Van Horn's record at Arkansas is 405-223, while his career record is 990-463.

AUBURN Tigers

Auburn's Ryan Tella has been voted Second Team All-SEC by a vote of the league's head coaches, it was announced on Tuesday. Tella, a sophomore, led Auburn and was fourth in the SEC with a .360 batting average. The Fremont, Calif., native also ranked among the conference leaders in slugging percentage (.508, 11th), on base percentage (.448, sixth), hits (85, fourth), triples (four, tied-fifth), total bases (120, seventh), walks (35, tied-eighth) and stolen bases (17, tied-third). In league-only games Tella was seventh in batting average (.333), tied for third in hits (41) and tied for fifth in stolen bases (six). Auburn's everyday center fielder, Tella finished the year with a team-high five outfield assists and had a .973 fielding percentage on 183 chances. Auburn finished the year 31-28 and at the end of the regular season led the league in hitting (.304), on base percentage (.386), hits (610), triples (19) and stolen bases (113).

GEORGIA Bulldogs

The 2012 Georgia baseball season officially ended Monday after the Bulldogs did not receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs (31-26 overall, 14-15 Southeastern Conference) registered their lowest Earned Run Average in the aluminum bat era (began in 1974) at 3.86 and for the second year in a row set a school record for best fielding percentage at .978. The Georgia pitching staff was led by redshirt sophomore left-hander Alex Wood (7-3), and his 2.73 ERA was the best by a starter since 1989 (Dave Fleming, 2.08). Offensively, Georgia batted .279, and junior third baseman Curt Powell led the club with a .355 average. Freshman outfielder Hunter Cole had a team-best seven home runs while junior shortstop Kyle Farmer collected a team-high 41 RBI. Also, Perno said he is excited about the recent news of Foley Field improvements scheduled for 2013 and beyond and thanked the Georgia administration for their continued support. The 2012 Major League Baseball draft is slated for June 4-6. The first round will be on June 4 starting at 7 p.m. Rounds 2-15 will begin at noon on June 5 and rounds 16-40 will be on June 6 beginning at noon. Wood is projected to be a first day selection along with a couple members of Georgia's recruiting class. Alex Wood, Curt Powell, Hunter Cole and Kevin Ruiz were honored by the Southeastern Conference Tuesday as the league announced its All-SEC and Community Service teams for baseball. Wood and Powell were named to the All-SEC Second Team; Cole made the All-Freshman SEC team while Ruiz landed a spot on the SEC Community Service squad. The SEC Coaches vote on the teams, and they can not vote for their own players. Wood ranked among the league's best pitchers, posting a 7-3 record and 2.73 Earned Run Average (ERA) in 15 starts. He struck out 100 with only 21 walks in 102.1 innings pitched. Wood's 2.73 ERA was the best by a Georgia starter since 1989 (Dave Fleming, 2.08). Powell started 55 games at third base and led the club with a .355 batting average, 45 runs scored and a .434 on base percentage. He fielded .938 in 160 total chances and was 12-for-16 in stolen base attempts. Cole, who made 50 starts, had a team-best seven home runs while batting .276 with 23 RBI. He registered seven assists in the outfield too. In SEC action, Wood went 4-1 with a 2.57 ERA in 10 starts and picked off seven base runners. Powell batted .345-2-10 while Cole hit .278-3-8. Wood and Powell are Georgia's first All-SEC selections since 2009. Georgia posted a final record of 31-26 (14-15 SEC) in 2012. Up next, the Bulldogs turn their attention to Major League Baseball's First-Year Player draft (June 4-6). Wood is projected to be a first day selection along with a couple members of Georgia's recruiting class.

KENTUCKY Wildcats

After playing seven scoreless innings, No. 25 Kent State got a three-run homer in the top of the eighth inning from Evan Campbell - the first homer hit in the tournament - leading the Flashes to their nation-leading 20th consecutive win, ending No. 11 Kentucky's school-record season with a 3-2 loss in the NCAA Gary Regional Championship, on Sunday night at U.S. Steel Yard. Kentucky (45-18) eliminated host Purdue in the first game of the day with a 6-3 win over the host, No. 14-ranked Boilermakers. With the win over Purdue to advance to face Kent State, UK won its school-record 45th game, eclipsing the school record of 44 wins in 2006 and 2008. In its last two NCAA Tournament appearances, UK has eliminated Big Ten host schools Michigan (2008) and Purdue. The two teams battled through seven scoreless on Sunday before the homer from Campbell, just a day in between playing 21 innings in the NCAA Tournament opener, the second-longest game in NCAA postseason history. After besting Kentucky 7-6 in the 21-inning thriller, Kent State posted a win over Purdue on Saturday and the Wildcats bested Valparaiso to advance to the Sunday round of the regional. The game-winning homer from Campbell, his seventh of the year, hit metal railing below the yellow mark in rightfield - according to video from the WKYT-TV reporter Brian Milam. The ball bounced back into play, with two runners on base and two outs, but was immediately ruled a homer by the first-base umpire, who made the call from just on the edge of the infield grass. Throughout the tournament, hosted at the independent league's U.S. Steel Yard, all four teams could not get a ball over the fence. Campbell provided the first homer of the tournament as a game winner. During the eighth and ninth innings against the red-hot KSU club, UK belted balls that had the ability to sail out of the park in heroic fashion, as pinch hitters A.J. Reed and Jeff Boehm, and junior Luke Maile - playing with a pulled hamstring suffered in the 21-inning game - smashed balls that were caught up against the wall or on the warning track in the eighth inning. UK starter Chandler Shepherd (3-1) worked a gem in a hard-luck loss in the best outing of his career, tossing 7.2 innings, allowing four hits and two runs, walking one and striking out four. Senior Alex Phillips replaced Shepherd, working the final 1.1 innings of his career - after picking up his eighth save of the year earlier in the day against Purdue - allowed two hits and one run. Kentucky and Kent State squared off in two instant classic contests in the three days, playing a total of 30 innings in two games, with both decided by one run. UK finished the year with a staggering 15-8 record in one-run games and 18-10 record in one or two-run contests. A total of 44-percent of Kentucky's games in 2012 were one or two-run contests. UK finished the year with a school-record 10-5 mark against top-10 teams.

LSU Tigers

Stony Brook (52-13) tossed its second-consecutive three-hitter on Sunday, as the Seawolves came back from a game down to advance past LSU to its first College World Series, 7-2, on Sunday night at Alex Box Stadium. LSU (47-18), the Southeastern Conference Champion, won a 12-inning affair in game 1 that was hauled by rain after 11 innings on Friday afternoon and resumed on Saturday morning with a 5-4 Tigers victory. However, back-to-back complete games by Stony Brook pitching ended the Tigers' season. After Sunday's game was moved from noon to 7 p.m. in anticipation of rain, Stony Brook starter Frankie Vanderka (3-3) allowed only two runs on three hits with four walks and five strikeouts. Though the Tigers hit the ball well throughout the game, just about all of the contact landed in back of the Seawolves' gloves. Meanwhile, Stony Brook leadoff hitter Travis Jankowski was 4-for-6 with two runs and No. 3 hitter Michael Carmona was 3-for-5 with two runs and one RBI. Jankowski singled in front of LSU leftfielder Raph Rhymes to open the game and came around the score on a one-out single by Carmona to give the Seawolves a 1-0 lead. The Tigers matched the run with a two-out solo home run to left field by Mason Katz that tied the game at 1-1 in the bottom of the first. However, that the only hit LSU could muster off Vanderka until the seventh inning. In the top of the third, Stony Brook put together three runs on five hits to drive starter Ryan Eades (5-3) from the game. Maxx Tessenbaum's RBI double scored Jankowski, who led off the inning with a double of his own. RBI singles by Kevin Krause and Steven Goldstein to end Eades' day with the Tigers trailing 4-1. In the fourth, Stony Brook added two runs when LSU reliever Joe Broussard hit a batter and walked one to setup Tissenbaum's two-RBI double to left-center field. The Seawolves' 6-1 lead would last until the bottom of the seventh when Alex Edward doubled to right-center, moved to third on a single by Tyler Hanover and scored on a sacrifice fly to deep right-center by Austin Nola. Stony Brook answered the run with an RBI single by Krause that scored Carmona for a 7-2 lead. Attendance for the game was a school record for a home baseball game, 10,620. LSU is now 2-2 in game three of a NCAA Super Regional. The Tigers only other game three NCAA Super Regional loss came during the 2001 season, a 7-1 decision to Tulane at Zephyr Field in Metairie. Entering tonight's game, LSU had outscored its opponents by a 42-13 tally in game three of the NCAA Super Regional. For the NCAA Baton Rouge Super Regional, Stony Brook outscored LSU by a 14-8 margin. The Seawolves outhit the Tigers by a 35-15 margin.

OLE MISS Rebels

Ole Miss got the early lead on Monday night, but for only the fourth time this season the Rebels suffered a loss when scoring in the first inning as Ole Miss (37-26) fell to TCU (40-20) by a score of 7-4 in an elimination game at the College Station Regional. With the loss, the Rebels end their season while TCU will advance to face UCLA in a Super Regional next weekend in Los Angeles. Andrew Mistone and Tanner Mathis were named to the All-Regional team following the conclusion of the weekend event. It marks the ninth time in the last 10 seasons Ole Miss has played in an NCAA Regional and the sixth time the Rebels have played for the regional title. Four of those times, the Rebels have advanced to play in a Super Regional. Bobby Wahl (7-4) took the loss for the Rebels, working on two days rest after picking up the win over TCU in the regional opener on Friday night. Wahl allowed four runs on five hits with a walk and five strikeouts in 4.1 innings of work. Justin Scharf (4-2) picked up the win in relief as he held the Rebels to one run over the final 4.2 innings. E allowed four hits with a walk and a strikeout in that time. Ole Miss scored first, pushing a single run home in the top of the first inning when Matt Snyder grounded out to second to drive in Tanner Mathis from third. Mathis opened the game with a double before taking third on a groundout from Alex Yarbrough to set up the score on the Snyder hit. TCU tied things up in the fourth with a solo home run from Josh Elander that knotted the score at one. A second solo shot put the Horned Frogs in the lead when Jantzen Witte sent one over the wall in left field with one out on the board. The Rebels moved back in front with two runs in the fifth inning as Ole Miss got an RBI single from Yarbrough that scored Andrew Mistone from second and moved Mathis from first to third. Singles from Mistone and Mathis put the two men on board for the Yarbrough hit to tie the game. TCU then changed pitchers and intentionally walked Snyder to load the bases and bring Zach Kirksey to the plate. Kirksey then hit a sac fly to left field to bring home Mathis and put Ole Miss on top 3-2. The Horned Frogs tied it up in the bottom half of the inning with a groundout to third from Keaton Jones that scored Josh Gonzales from third. Gonzales reached on a walk and stole second before advancing to third on a single from Brance Rivera to set up the score on the groundout from Jones. A single up the middle from the next Horned Frog batter drove in Rivera and put TCU up 4-3. Ole Miss then turned to its bullpen for Mike Mayers. The sophomore right-hander got the Rebels out of the inning with no more damage and held Ole Miss within striking distance down only one run after five complete. TCU pushed the lead out to two runs in the sixth inning with an RBI double from Rivera with two outs to make it 5-3 in favor of the Horned Frogs. Momentum continued to be on the side of the Frogs in the seventh as TCU plated two more runs to push the lead out to 7-3. Ole Miss mounted a rally in the ninth inning, pushing a run across after back-to-back singles to open the inning and a fielder's choice put men at the corners with one out. Mathis then singled through the right side to score a pinch running Blake Newalu and make it 7-4. TCU turned a double play to end the game, however, and picked up the win.

MISSISSIPPI STATE Bulldogs

Playing in its 26th NCAA regional tournament and in its 32nd NCAA postseason advancement overall, Mississippi State posted a 1-2 mark in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional to conclude the 2012 campaign with a 40-24 record. It represents MSU's 18th 40-win baseball season and its first since 2005. MSU finished tied for fifth in the SEC and posted a 16-14 league mark, team's most since 2003 … After winning the 2012 SEC Tournament May 27 in Hoover, Ala., the Bulldogs played a pair of

He leads the SEC in earned run average and ranks second with 127 strikeouts … Freshman first baseman Wes Rea set a school record and paced the SEC with 636 putouts … Adam Frazier's 226 assists leads the SEC and stands and the most by a shortstop at MSU.

SOUTH CAROLINA Gamecocks

The Arizona Wildcats scored three times in the top of the ninth inning to defeat the South Carolina Gamecocks, 4-1 Monday night in game two of the best-of-3 College World Series Championship Series at TD Ameritrade Park in Omaha. The hard-fought win in front of an announced attendance of 23,872 gave Arizona a sweep of the championship series and ended South Carolina's hopes of a third-straight title. Arizona had seven hits and left six runners on base. Carolina had just three hits, all singles, and left seven runners stranded. Michael Roth ends his stellar career with three CWS records including career starts (8), career innings pitched (60.1) and career hit batsmen (7). Matt Price tied the record for career appearances in the CWS with 13. Christian Walker tied a single season CWS record with eight walks and tied career marks with 73 at-bats and 28 hits. Chad Holbrook has been promoted to head baseball coach, athletics director Ray Tanner announced today. Holbrook replaces Tanner, who was named athletics director on Friday. Holbrook recently completed his fourth season as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for the South Carolina baseball program. Holbrook, served as hitting instructor, overseeing the Gamecock offense, including base running and the short game and was the third base coach. He also worked with the outfielders. Holbrook came to the Gamecock program in July of 2008 after serving 15 seasons as a member of the University of North Carolina coaching staff. Holbrook was recently honored as the 2011 ABCA/Baseball America Assistant Coach of the Year. A tremendous evaluator of talent, Holbrook recently was named the No. 10 best recruiter in all of college sports by ESPNU & ESPN The Magazine in the publication's 2011 January edition. The list was put together in conjunction with three-dozen experts who were asked the question: Who are the top 20 recruiters in college sports? Holbrook was the only baseball coach on the list. Holbrook's offensive prowess has made an immediate impact on the South Carolina baseball program in his first four seasons. His guidance was instrumental in helping the Gamecocks to back-to-back national championships in 2010 and 2011 at the College World Series as well as a national runner-up finish in 2012. A dedicated community leader whose charitable organization has made a difference in many South Carolina families, a three-time National Coach of the Year and Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, Tanner just completed his 16th year as head coach at the University of South Carolina. Tanner has established one of the premier programs in college baseball. He has led the Garnet & Black to two NCAA Division I Baseball Championships, a pair of national runner-up finishes, six College World Series appearances, three SEC championships, six SEC Eastern division titles, a SEC tournament crown and 13 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.Under the direction of Tanner, South Carolina's postseason success from 2010-2012 is arguably the greatest run in collegiate baseball history. In the three-year span, the Gamecocks established NCAA records with 22 consecutive postseason wins and 12 consecutive wins in the College World Series. The Gamecocks won the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship in 2010 and 2011 with a national runner-up finish in 2012. South Carolina's 30-4 (.882) record over the past three seasons in the NCAA Tournament is the fifth best three-year postseason record in NCAA history. In addition, the 2012 CWS trip marked the sixth time in 11 years that South Carolina had reached Omaha. No Division I baseball team has made more appearances than the Gamecocks over the last 11 seasons.

TENNESSEE Volunteers

The first year of the Dave Serrano is officially in the books as Tennessee closed out the 2012 campaign with a 24-31 overall record and 8-22 mark in SEC play. The Vols finished the year with wins over five different ranked teams, taking down No. 16 Texas, No. 2 Kentucky, No. 19 Georgia, No. 10 South Carolina and No. 4 Florida. With the addition of a victory over Vanderbilt, Tennessee recorded a win over exactly half of last year's College World Series field, including both finalists. Prior to the season finale, the Big Orange said goodbye to six seniors as Josh Allman, Hunter Daniel, Davis Morgan, Chris Pierce, Zach Osborne and Wes Walker each played their final collegiate contest. For Osborne it was his 216th career game, placing him third on the all-time list behind Michael Rivera (219) and Ed Lewis (217). He finishes his career at Rocky Top with his name all over the Tennessee record book as he also ranks first with 564 defensive assists and 28 sacrifice bunts, second with 783 at-bats, fifth with 176 singles, eighth with 11 sacrifice flies and ninth with 225 hits. After recording his squad-best 63rd hit of the season in the final game of the year, Will Maddox finished with a .297 batting average, becoming just the third freshman since 1980 to lead a Tennessee team. He joins an exclusive club with Chris Burke (1999) and Kentrail Davis (2008), both of whom went on to earn All-America status and become first-round picks. Tennessee finished the 2012 season with the second-highest home attendance total in school history at 63,084. That mark trails only the 1997 campaign when the Vols attracted 64,107 to the friendly confines of Lindsey Nelson Stadium.

VANDERBILT Commodores

North Carolina State rallied to score six runs over the final two innings to eliminate Vanderbilt with a 9-7 victory at Doak Field. The Commodores (35-28) took a 7-3 lead into the eighth inning before the Wolfpack (43-18) started their comeback. NC State reliever Ryan Wilkins worked the team's first 1-2-3 inning of the night in the bottom of the seventh to get the crowd back into the game. With the crowd still on its feet to start the eighth, Brett Austin led off the inning with a walk. A double down the left field line from Logan Ratledge chased Vandy reliever Tyler Beede and put runners on second and third. Freshman lefty Philip Pfeifer was summoned from the bullpen to face left-handed hitting Tarran Senay, who entered the game an inning earlier as a defensive replacement. Senay lifted a 3-2 pitch high into the air and over the right field fence for a three-run homer to cut the Commodores' lead to a single run. Will Clinard entered in the eighth to get the final out of the inning and preserve the Dores' one-run lead. In the ninth, Andrew Ciencin ripped a single to center field to start the inning. Jake Fincher then laid down a sacrifice bunt that was fielded by third baseman Riley Reynolds, who gloved the bunt and threw to first base. But the throw hit Fincher, who was running in fair territory, and bounced away allowing pinch runner Bryan Adametz to reach third with Fincher safe at first. After a ground-out to first base, Clinard issued an intentional walk to Ratledge to load the bases with one out and set up a potential game-ending double play. Senay, however, had other ideas, flipping a single over second baseman Tony Kemp's head to score two runs and give Senay five RBI in two at-bats. Trea Turner followed with a RBI-single to give the Wolfpack an insurance run. Wilkins finished off the game striking out the side in the ninth after a leadoff walk to send NC State to the Super Regional in Gainesville, Fla. next weekend against the top-seeded Florida Gators. The Commodores took the lead in the third inning, scoring five runs on five hits after the Wolfpack had scored two to reclaim the lead in the top of the inning. Kemp led off the frame with a double and came around to score on Mike Yastrzemski's single. After Yastrzemski stole second, Gregor singled to drive in a run and eventually scored on a wild pitch. Freshman Connor Castellano capped the rally with a two-run single. The Dores tacked on another run in the fifth with Castellano's second RBI-double. Yastrzemski led Vandy with the first first four-hit game of his career, including a first inning home run. Castellano added two doubles and three RBI while senior Riley Reynolds added two hits in his final game as a Commodore. Senay came up big for the Wolfpack with five RBI while freshman Trea Turner chipped in three of NC State's 13 hits. Wilkins (5-2) earned the win with 4.2 scoreless innings of relief for NC State. The right-hander scattered three hits and punched out six while holding down the Vandy offense to allow the comeback. Clinard (7-3) took the loss giving up three runs, two earned, on three hits in one-plus inning. Beede was stellar for the Dores out of the pen working 5.1 innings and leaving with a 7-3 lead. The freshman matched a career-best with eight strikeouts. Wolfpack starter Logan Jernigan was roughed up for seven runs on eight hits over four-plus innings. Following the game, six Commodores were selected to the All-Tournament team with Spencer Navin, Conrad Gregor, Anthony Gomez, Mike Yastrzemski, T.J. Pecoraro and Tyler Beede earning recognition. Vanderbilt finishes the season 35-28 after starting the season 7-15.

SEC NOTES

SECond To None

In the past 23 years, the Southeastern Conference has been the top college baseball conference in the nation. Consider:

- Since 1990, 153 squads have received NCAA Tournament bids to lead the nation.
- A nation-leading 46 SEC teams have recorded College World Series berths since 1990, winning nine of the last 23 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011) and six runner-ups (1997, 2002, 2005, 2008,2011 and 2012).
- Ten different SEC squads (Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vanderbilt) have made CWS appearances since 1990, the most squads from a conference to appear in Omaha since that time.
- SEC squads have appeared in 27 of the last 28 College World Series, with the lone miss in 1992.
- Since 1990, 28 SEC squads have posted 50+ wins, while 113 have won 40+ games in a season, including six in 2012.

SEC IN THE COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

Since 1990, the Southeastern Conference has been the most successful baseball conference in the country. The SEC has won nine of the last 23 NCAA titles (1990, 1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2011), finished runner-up six times and has put more teams in the College World Series than any conference in the country. Take a look at the SEC's success in the last 23 years:

- Not counting games against each other, the SEC has posted a 70-56 record in the College World Series since 1990, a 55.6 winning percentage.
- Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 150 of the 330 games in the College World Series, an amazing 45.5 percent of games. SEC teams played in 12 of the 15 games of the 2004 College World Series and in 9 of the 15 in 2012.
- The SEC has sent 10 of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990.
- The SEC has played 43 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over 1.5 per year.

SEC FIRST ROUND MAJOR LEAGUE PICKS

Four SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2012 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. Florida's Mike Zunino was picked third by the Seattle Mariners. Kevin Gausman of LSU was selected fourth by the Baltimore Orioles, while Mississippi State's Chris Stratton was 20th by the San Francisco Giants. Brian Johnson of Florida was selected 31st by the Boston Red Sox. With those four selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 93 total in the first round during that time.

SEC TIES

With the hiring of John Cohen at Mississippi State in the summer of 2008, there are now three SEC head coaches (David Perno-Georgia; Dave Van Horn-Arkansas) who played at and now are the head coach at their alma mater. Three other head coaches are former SEC players as well: Ole Miss' Mike Bianco (played at LSU), Alabama's Mitch Gaspard (played two years at LSU) and LSU's Paul Mainieri (played one season at LSU).

SEC Champion: Florida

SEC ENDS 78TH SEASON OF CONFERENCE PLAY

This marked the 78th season of conference play in the SEC. In 1933, baseball became one of the first sports in which the SEC crowned a champion. The league did not sponsor teams in 1945 and 1946 due to World War II.

The SEC standings below include all regular-season games from 1933-2011, with SEC Tournament games counting in 1993 and 1994.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - MAY 29, 2012

SEC ANNOUNCES ANNUAL BASEBALL HONORS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. -- LSU outfielder Raph Rhymes was selected 2012 SEC Baseball Player of the Year, Chris Stratton of Mississippi State was named SEC Pitcher of the Year and Kentucky outfielder Austin Cousino was named SEC Freshman of the Year by a vote of the league's 12 head baseball coaches. The coaches also tabbed Kentucky skipper Gary Henderson SEC Coach of the Year. Michael Roth of South Carolina was named SEC Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The Wildcats have had a historic season in 2012, starting with a 22-game winning streak to open the year, setting a school record for the best start and the longest winning streak in program annals. UK has posted series wins over No. 2 South Carolina, Tennessee, No. 18 Georgia, No. 10 Ole Miss, No. 9 Arkansas, No. 1 LSU and Alabama. UK's seven series wins in 2012 mark the most in program history, equaling the 2006 SEC Championship team's series wins. Kentucky's 41 wins in the regular season were the most in UK school history.

Coaches were not permitted to vote for their own players. The complete 2012 All-SEC Team follows:

SEC IN MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

The Southeastern Conference has long been tapped as a resource for the major leagues, dating back as far as the 1800's. According to the records of each of the league's current institutions, 411 former players have spent time in the majors through the end of the 2011 season.

On opening day of the 2012 season, 45 former SEC players were listed on MLB opening day 25-man rosters. Ole Miss led the league with six, while Tennessee and Vanderbilt had five each. Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and LSU each have four.

2012 SEC BASEBALL ATTENDANCE BREAKDOWN

2012 SEC ATTENDANCE LEADERS

June 12 - FINAL

Year after year, the SEC continues to be the benchmark in paid college baseball attendance. The SEC and its member schools own virtually all regular season, conference tournament, NCAA Regional and Super Regional attendance records. The SEC and one of its institutions have led the NCAA in total and average attendance for the last 15 seasons in a row, and 20 of the last 26 years. In 2005, the SEC set a goal to reach the 1.5 million attendance mark. The drive was renewed and continued for the 2006 season, a season which saw over 1.6 million fans at SEC ballparks. In 2007, the SEC drew nearly 1.7 million and averaged for 4,000 per game for first time in history. New records were once again set in 2011 as the league drew over two million for the first time ever, as well as nearly 5,000 per game.
