In addition, the SEC men's basketball teams who make it to postseason will be on a teleconference on Monday, March 12 beginning at 10:00 a.m. CT.

All SEC basketball teleconferences can be listened to on the internet at www.secsports.com shortly after the conclusion of the teleconference.

SEC Websites

General SEC basketball information can be accessed on the World Wide Web at www.secdigitalnetwork.com. The basketball section is updated with new material daily on the page, with standings, statistics, game previews, notes and other important information. The SEC basketball release can also be printed off of the secsports.com website in an Adobe Acrobat file. Adobe Reader, which is used to read the Adobe Acrobat file, can be downloaded for free on your computer on the adobe.com website.

The SEC also offers a media-only section of the website - www.secsports-media.com. Media covering the SEC can retrieve information from the conference office as well as the 12 SEC institutions from the media site. An internet photo gallery, logos and a championship credentialing system for SEC basketball is available on the site. (The site houses all media information for the other 19 sports the SEC sponsors).

SEC Release

The conference basketball release will be available each Monday beginning in early November via the league's websites. Any media representative wishing to receive information via e-mail should register on www.secsportsmedia.com. SEC standings and results will be updated each weekday, while conference statistics will be updated as often as needed based on the schedule of play. Information is also available via the school's SIDs.

SEC Weekly Awards

The SEC will name a Player of the Week and Freshman of the Week throughout the 2011-12 season (November-March) for Monday afternoon publication. Nominations for both awards are made by the SEC men's basketball sports information contacts. The honorees are selected by a vote of the SEC Media Relations staff.

The first Player and Freshman of the Week awards will be Monday, November 14.

SEC Tournament Credentials

Media credential request forms for the 2012 SEC Tournament will be available in early January on the SEC media website at www.secsportsmedia.com. For more information, please contact the SEC media relations department at (205) 458-3000.

The 2012 SEC Men's Tournament is March 8-11 (Thursday-Sunday) at the New Orleans Arena in New Orleans, La.

ALL TIMES EASTERN

*On March 11, the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee will select eight teams to play the first-round games on March 13 and 14 in Dayton. The four winning teams will advance to a second-round site to be determined by the committee during selection weekend. Second- and third-round and regional sites will be placed in the bracket by the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee March 11.

2012 SEC Tournament

March 8-11 • New Orleans Arena • New Orleans, La.

The Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournament returned to the Crescent City as New Orleans, La., hosted the 2012 event. It was the third time the city has hosted the tournament and the first for the New Orleans Arena. This was be the fifth time state of Louisiana (Baton Rouge in 1938 and 1988 and New Orleans 1996 and 2003) has hosted the tournament.

Opened on October 29, 1999, at a cost of $112 million, the New Orleans Arena is the home of the National Basketball Association's New Orleans Hornets and has hosted the NCAA Tournament in each of the previous two years. Located adjacent to the Louisiana Superdome, the arena has a seating capacity of 18,000 for basketball.

The winner of the 11-game tournament receives the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds, conference championship and division titles are determined by the 16-game conference schedule during the regular season. Teams are seeded 1-12 based on their regular season conference finish.

Atlanta served as host of the inaugural SEC Tournament played following the 1932-33 season and did so again after the 1933-34 season. The event was held every year through 1952, with the exception of 1935. After a 26-year lay-off (1953-78), the tournament was renewed in 1979. The 2012 tournament will be the 52nd in league history and the 33rd since the renewal.

The SEC has shown extraordinary balance in the tournament, evidenced by the fact that a different school won the first seven titles after the renewal. The event has helped set the stage for SEC teams in the NCAA Tournament, as 21 of tournament champions since the tournament resumed in 1979 have advanced to at least the Sweet 16. Three of the last 15 SEC Tournament champions have gone on to win the national championship. Since the renewal in 1979, the SEC Tournament Champion has failed to win at least one NCAA Tournament game only four times.

Kentucky leads the league with 27 SEC Tournament titles. Alabama is second with six, while Tennessee ranks third with four. Florida and Mississippi State each have three championship trophies while Georgia and Vanderbilt have two. Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss and former league member Georgia Tech have each won one SEC Tournament championship.

SEC Success

- The SEC has won three of the last eight NCAA titles (2006-Florida, 2007-Florida, 2012 Kentucky). No other conference has won more than two NCAA titles during that stretch.
- The SEC recorded a .500 record or better against the other five major conferences in 2012. SEC teams posted a .700 (7-3) mark against Big 12 teams, .643 (9-5) against the ACC, .555 (5-4) against the Pac-12 and .500 (5-5) against the Big Ten.
- In the 2012 NCAA Tournament, the SEC posted a 7-2 record against the other five major conferences.
- The SEC is currently the reigning national champions in the “big three” men’s sports – Football (Alabama), Men’s Basketball (Kentucky) and Baseball (South Carolina).
- Throughout the history of men’s college basketball, the Southeastern Conference has captured 11 NCAA Championships and four NIT titles, putting the SEC as one of the nation’s top basketball conferences.
- In the sports of Men’s Basketball, Football and Baseball, SEC teams have won a combined 12 (out of a possible 20) national championships since the 2005-06 academic year. (Men’s Basketball: Florida 2006, Florida 2007, Kentucky 2012; Football: Florida 2006, LSU 2007, Florida 2008, Alabama 2009, Auburn 2010, Alabama 2011; Baseball: 2009 LSU, 2010 South Carolina, 2011 South Carolina).
- Since 2006, the SEC has had a national champion in 10 of its 20 sponsored sports – football, men’s basketball, baseball, men’s indoor track and field, women’s swimming and diving, gymnastics, women’s tennis, men’s tennis, men’s swimming and diving and women’s basketball.
- In its history, the SEC has won 190 national championships (113 men’s and 77 women’s titles). Since 2000, the SEC has won 74 national crowns, including 41 men’s titles and 33 women’s titles (as of April 4, 2012).
- Eight of the 12 SEC schools have won national championships in the 20 SEC-sponsored sports since Fall 2006. They include: Alabama (football, gymnastics), Auburn (football, men’s swimming and diving, women’s swimming and diving), Florida (men’s indoor track, women’s tennis, women’s swimming and diving, football, men’s basketball), Georgia (gymnastics, men’s tennis), Kentucky (men’s basketball), LSU (baseball, football, women’s outdoor track and field), South Carolina (baseball), Tennessee (women’s basketball, women’s indoor track and field)
- The SEC has won 11 NCAA men’s basketball tournament titles with Kentucky claiming eight (1948, 1949, 1951, 1958, 1978, 1996, 1998 and 2012). Florida has two (2006, 2007) and Arkansas has one (1994).
- Since 1993, the SEC has won six men’s basketball national championships – Arkansas (1994), Kentucky (1996), Kentucky (1998), Florida (2006), Florida (2007) and Kentucky (2012). Only the ACC (6) has won as many men’s basketball titles during this time.
- The SEC has won 29 national championships during the last six academic years, an average of almost five per year.

Poll Worthy

The SEC is the one of just three conferences in the nation to have all of its teams ranked at least one week in the Associated Press top 25 (excluding pre-season polls) since 1999-00. Simply stated, every SEC team has been a top-25 team nationally at one point in the last 10 seasons.

A look at SEC teams in the AP top 25 show the league’s diversity since the 2000 season. Every team has been in the top 25.

School	Last Ranked	School	Last Ranked
Alabama	2011-12	LSU	2008-09

Big Attendance Numbers, Again

More than 2.4 million fans have witnessed SEC basketball in each of the last six seasons. Kentucky and Tennessee were both ranked among the top six nationally in average attendance. The Wildcats led the nation with an average of 23,721 fans per game while the Vols were sixth with an average of 16,543.

First Round Success

The SEC is 48-26 (64.9 percent) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament over the last 14 tournaments (since 1999). In 1999 the SEC won each of its six first round games, becoming the first conference to have six teams win their first round games in the same season.

How Sweet It Is

The Southeastern Conference has had at least one team advance to the Sweet 16 in 22 of the last 23 years. The SEC record for most teams advancing to the Sweet 16 is four which was accomplished in 1986 (Alabama, Auburn, Kentucky, LSU) and in 1996 (Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi State). Eleven of the SEC's 12 members have advanced to the Sweet 16 since 1996.

Here's a look at the major basketball conferences and their teams who have not been to the Sweet 16 since 1996:

SEC	11 of 12 (.917)	South Carolina
ACC	10 of 12 (.833)	Virginia, Virginia Tech
Big East	13 of 16 (.813)	DePaul, Rutgers, South Florida
Pac 12	8 of 12 (.667)	Colorado, Arizona State, Oregon State
Big Ten	8 of 12 (.667)	Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern

SEC Among Final Four Leaders

In the last 20 NCAA Tournaments (1993-2012), the SEC's 13 Final Four appearances are the second-most by any conference.

The SEC has had a total of five different teams to make the national semifinals, behind only the Big Ten and Big East's 's eight over the 20-year span.

SEC teams have made a total of 24 all-time appearances in the Final Four (29 including five appearances by Arkansas prior to joining the SEC).

Here's a look at the major basketball conference's Final Four appearances and their teams since 1993:

ACC	16	Duke, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Maryland
SEC	14	Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi St.
Big Ten	14	Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, Wisconsin
Big East ^	12	Connecticut, Georgetown, Louisville, Marquette, Syracuse, Villanova, West Virginia
Big 12*	9	Kansas, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas
Pacific-10	8	Arizona, Stanford, UCLA

*Including teams part of the Big 8

^ Including teams part of C-USA before joining the Big East

SECond To None

During the 2006-07 academic year the Southeastern Conference became the first conference to win the Division I National Championship in Football (Florida), Men's Basketball (Florida) and Women's Basketball (Tennessee) in the same school year.

Only the SEC and the Big East have ever won both the men's and women's basketball titles in one season. SEC won both three times in 1996, 1998 and 2007. The Big East has won both twice in 2003 and 2004.

The SEC swept both the NIT and NCAA Tournaments in 2006 when Florida won its first NCAA championship and South Carolina earned its second straight NIT title. Only four conferences have won both the NIT and NCAA title, including the Big East (2003), ACC (1992) and Big Ten (1979)

Spreading The Wealth

Since the 1980-81 season, each of the 12 SEC schools has captured either an SEC divisional, overall or tournament title and 11 different schools have won or shared the SEC Championship since the league's inception in 1933.

Triple-Doubles

SEC players have recorded nine triple doubles in the past four seasons, including two active players.

Kenny Gabriel registered the first triple-double in Auburn history and the 23rd in SEC SEC history with 24 points, 13 rebounds and 10 blocks against Bethune-Cookman on Jan. 2, 2012.

Vanderbilt's Brad Tinsley became the 21st SEC player to record a triple-double when he achieved the feat in the Commodores' season-opener against Presbyterian on Nov. 12, 2010. His 11 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists marked the first triple-double in Vanderbilt's 110-year history.

ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

OVERALL: 21-12 (13-3 H, 4-7 A, 4-2 N)
SEC: 9-7 (6-2 H, 3-5 A)

Head Coach: Anthony Grant
63-39 in 3rd year at Alabama

ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS

OVERALL: 18-14 (17-4 H, 1-9 A, 0-1 N)
SEC: 6-10 (5-3 H, 1-7 A)

Head Coach: Mike Anderson
18-14 in 1st year at Arkansas
218-112 in 10th year as a head coach

The No. 9 seeded Alabama men's basketball team fell to No. 8 Creighton, 58-57, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament after a last-second three-point shot by sophomore Trevor Releford fell short. The tournament trip was the 19th in UA history and its first since 2006. UA is 18-19 all-time in the tournament and has advanced to the Sweet 16 seven times and the Elite Eight once. The appearance was the first for any current member of the Crimson Tide. Head coach Anthony Grant is made his third trip to the tournament as a head coach and is 1-2 in his previous trips as the head coach at VCU. The Crimson Tide won eight of its last 13 games and five of its last eight to finish at 21-12 this season. The Tide was 9-9 off campus this season and 4-2 in true neutral site games with three of those victories coming by virtue of winning the Puerto Rico Tip Off in November. Only 13 of UA's 33 opponents reached the 60-point mark in regulation this season and five failed to score 50 points. UA's 32 opponents have converted on just 38.9 percent of their field goal attempts, the 14th lowest average in the nation. Of UA's 32 opponents, 11 scored their season low to date against the Tide's defense. Only six of UA's opponents have scored more than one point per possession against UA. In its 16 SEC games, UA was led in scoring by six different players.

Despite 13 points from freshman BJ Young, the University of Arkansas men's basketball team suffered a 70-54 loss to LSU Thursday afternoon in the opening round of the Southeastern Conference Tournament. The loss knocked the Razorbacks out of the tournament. Arkansas closed out a strong defensive first half with a scoring run, and headed to the locker rooms tied 28-28. LSU, however, used a 10-2 run at the start of the second half to take a 38-30 lead with 15:57 left in the game. Arkansas cut the Tigers' lead to five points with 11:40 left, but could not get any closer as LSU used an inside edge and an advantage on the free throw line to close out the game. Young scored his 13 points on 4-of-9 shooting from the floor and 5-of-7 from the free throw line, and he also dished out three assists. Sophomore Mardracus Wade scored nine points on 3-of-5 shooting from three-point range, but all of those points came in the first half. Arkansas used the game's fast pace to its advantage in the first half. The Razorbacks forced 10 Tigers turnovers in the first period alone, and scored 13 points off turnovers to LSU's two. Wade opened the game with a three-pointer and helped Arkansas take a 5-0 lead early. His second three-pointer gave Arkansas an 8-4 lead just over five minutes into the game, but LSU responded with a 7-0 run to take an 11-8 lead with 12:12 left in the half. Freshman Hunter Mickelson led Arkansas with six rebounds, and also scored six points. Junior Julyssez Nobles tallied nine points, two steals and one block. Senior Michael Sanchez scored seven. Arkansas shot 12-for-18 from the free throw line in the game, while LSU was 14-for-25. The Razorbacks shot 35.8 percent from the field in the game, while LSU made 50 percent. Arkansas was 4-for-10 from the three-point line in the first half, but 0-for-6 in the second.

Auburn played short-handed all season as five Tigers missed 85 games this season. Bernard Morena missed 31, Cedrick McAfee 28, Noel Johnson 12, Josh Langford 11 and Allen Payne 3. Junior Frankie Sullivan scored 10 points at Ole Miss on Feb. 11 to become the 33rd member of Auburn's 1,000-point club. He has 1,091 career points and is currently 25th on Auburn's all-time list. According to NCAAsports.com, Auburn has increased its RPI and strength of schedule dramatically in the massive rebuilding project by coach Tony Barbee as the Tigers have improved from 253 to 145 in RPI and 148 to 82 in strength of schedule from 2010-11 to 2011-12. Auburn, which was 15-16, surpassed last year's win total with a 63-52 victory over South Carolina in its 19th game of the season. The Tigers finished last season 11-20 overall. Auburn defeated No. 23 Mississippi State 65-55 on Feb. 18 for the Tigers' fourth SEC win of the year, equaling last year's team that went 4-12 in the league. Auburn defeated LSU 67-52 in the season finale for its fifth league win, surpassing last year's 4-12 SEC record. Auburn finished 14-3 in Auburn Arena this year with the only losses to No. 1 Kentucky, Alabama and Arkansas. It ties for the fourth most home wins in Tiger history. Auburn defeated No. 23 Mississippi State 65-55 on Feb. 18 to mark the Tigers' first win over a ranked team since defeating No. 11 and SEC Champion LSU 69-53 on March 7, 2009, in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. The Tigers had lost seven straight games to ranked teams. Auburn, which is fifth in the SEC with 4.8 blocks per game, surpassed last year's blocks total of 100 in the 18th game this year at LSU on Jan. 17. The Tigers had 149 blocks this year and are fifth on the school's single-season list. Auburn set a school record with 17 blocks vs. Nicholls State on Nov. 25. It is one block shy of tying the SEC record.

Florida appeared in its 15th NCAA Tournament, holding a 32-13 record all-time with two national championships, three trips to the national final and four Final Four appearances. This season marked the 12th NCAA Tournament under head coach Billy Donovan. With a 28-10 mark in the tournament, Donovan's .736 winning percentage in the tournament is third-highest among active coaches, trailing only Mike Krzyzewski and Roy Williams. Donovan has coached the Gators to both of their national championships and all three championship game appearances in three Final Four trips. Since 2006, the Gators are 18-3 in the NCAA Tournament. Florida made its sixth Elite Eight appearance in program history, holding a 4-2 mark in its six appearances. The Gators played in their fourth Elite Eight in the past seven years (since 2006) and have reached back-to-back Elite Eights twice in that span.

John Jenkins scored 15 points and Brad Tinsley added 12 as third-seeded Vanderbilt overcame a halftime deficit and blew past Georgia 63-41 in the SEC Tournament quarterfinals here Friday night. Georgia (15-17) fought gamely for just over a half but succumbed to foul trouble and the Commodores' offensive onslaught in the second period. The Bulldogs finished with a season-low point total, perhaps influenced by a season-high 17 turnovers. Despite three starters in early foul trouble, and second-leading scorer Kentavious Caldwell-Pope without a basket, Georgia somehow seized a 25-24 lead at intermission. The Bulldogs got 17 first-half points from their bench, led by six unexpected points from freshman center John Cannon. A bright spot amid the Bulldogs' defeat came from senior guard Dustin Ware, whose team-high 10 points pushed him past 1,000 for his career. He reached the magic number on his first field goal of the night, a straight-on 3-pointer from an assist by his senior teammate Gerald Robinson. Ware also handed out two assists, giving him an even 400 for his career and making him one of just six players in UGA history to achieve both milestones. Tinsley keyed the critical second-half run that proved to decide the outcome. On Vanderbilt's first possession, he drove to the basket, scored and was fouled by Marcus Thornton. His foul shot gave the Commodores a 27-25 lead that they never surrendered.

Kentucky advanced to the national championship game for the 11th time in school history and came away with its eighth national title with a 67-59 win over Kansas. UK is 111-46 in NCAA Tournament games. Kentucky's 111 tournament wins is the most in the country. The Wildcats are 19-7 in Final Four games and 8-3 in national championship games. Kentucky has 18 Final Four wins, the second most in the country. Kentucky joins the Kentucky 1996 and Indiana 1976 team as the only teams to go unbeaten in conference and win the National Championship. Kentucky won a school-record 38 games. Kentucky blocked an NCAA Championship game record 11 shots, breaking the record previously set by UConn in 2011 and Florida in 2006. Anthony Davis was named the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, while he, Michael Kidd-Gilchrist and Doron Lamb were all named to the Final Four All-Tournament team. Davis earned every major national player of the year award (Associated Press, USBWA, Sporting News, CBSSports.com, Basketball Times, Rupp Award, John R. Wooden Award, Naismith Award), in addition to earning SEC Player of the Year honors from the league's coaches and the Associated Press.

146-91 in 7th year as a head coach

The Tigers returned to post-season play when they received an invitation to participate in the National Invitation Tournament. The Tigers finished the season 18-15 after splitting two games in the SEC Tournament in New Orleans, beating Arkansas 70-54 in the first round and losing to Kentucky, 60-51, before falling 76-96 at Oregon in the NIT. This was LSU's sixth trip to the postseason NIT after appearances in 1970, 1982, 1983, 2002 and 2004. In the 1970 event, LSU went to the semifinals in a 16-team event that was held all at Madison Square Garden. Trent Johnson became the fourth LSU coach to take a team to the NIT and Johnson has taken each of the his three programs (Nevada, Stanford, LSU) to both the NCAA and the NIT.

Ole Miss concluded its season with a 20-14 record and an appearance in the NIT. The Rebels posted their fifth 20-win campaign and fifth postseason appearance in Andy Kennedy's six years at the helm. He is the only coach in school history to lead the team to five 20-win seasons or five postseason appearances. He has the most postseason wins of any coach in school history with seven, and he has compiled the most overall wins (125) and SEC wins (46) by a Rebel coach over a six-year period. The team's 125 victories rank Kennedy sixth in SEC history by a coach in his first six years in the league. The Rebels made their 11th appearance in the NIT, falling to Illinois State 96-93 in overtime in the first-round game in Oxford. Ole Miss had won five straight games before dropping a 65-53 decision to Vanderbilt in the SEC Tournament semifinals in New Orleans. Senior forward Terrance Henry finished his four-year career with 1,095 points, which is 28th-most in school history. The All-SEC second team selection (coaches) is one of two players in program history to reach 1,000 points and 100 blocks. Junior forward Reginald Buckner was an SEC All-Defensive selection (coaches) for the second straight year. He swatted away 69 shots, the second-highest season total in school history, and ranked fifth among SEC players with 2.2 blocks per game. Junior forward Murphy Holloway was an AP All-SEC honorable mention pick after averaging 11.2 points and a team-high 9.0 rebounds (third in SEC) in his first year back in the Red and Blue after a one-year stint at South Carolina. Freshman guard Jarvis Summers added 10.4 ppg and junior guard Nick Williams 10.1 ppg. Henry and reserve forward Steadman Short were the only two seniors on this year's squad.

MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS

OVERALL: 21-12 (15-4 H, 3-6 A, 3-2 N)
SEC: 8-8 (6-2 H, 2-6 A)

Head Coach: Rick Stansbury
293-166 in 14th year at Mississippi State
293-166 in 14th year as a head coach

SOUTH CAROLINA GAMECOCKS

OVERALL: 10-21 (9-9 H, 1-9 A, 0-3 N)
SEC: 2-14 (2-6 H, 0-8 A)

Head Coach: Darrin Horn
60-63 in 4th year at South Carolina
171-111 in 9th year as a head coach

A remarkable 14-year run as a head coach came to an end on March 15, as Rick Stansbury announced his retirement after 22 years with the university. His unprecedented tenure was filled with championships, the most wins in school history and an impressive list of All-American and All-SEC performers. His legacy, which began to form as an assistant at Mississippi State in 1991 under Richard Williams, also has him in the SEC record books as the ninth-winningest coach in league history. In all, Stansbury coached his teams to 122 SEC wins, the 14th most in SEC history, and had winning records against eight of the league foes, including his 21-8 mark against arch-rival Ole Miss. Six of his teams garnered NCAA Tournament bids, while five squads participated in the NIT, including this year's team.

South Carolina suffered a 63-57 loss to fifth-seeded Alabama in the opening round of the 2012 SEC Tournament in New Orleans, La., at the New Orleans Arena on Thursday. South Carolina (10-21) was led by freshman guard Damien Leonard and sophomore guard Brenton Williams, both with 13 points in the contest. Bruce Ellington added 11 points, all in the second half. Alabama (21-10) was led by freshman guard Trevor Lacey with 15 points. JaMychal Green added 12 points and seven rebounds. The Gamecocks were plagued by foul trouble throughout the contest. Anthony Gill played just 10 minutes, after picking up two fouls in the first four minutes of the game and a third early in the second half, while Ellington was forced to sit a large portion of the second half after picking up his fourth foul of the contest with 12:53 remaining.

TENNESSEE VOLUNTEERS

OVERALL: 19-15 (15-4 H, 3-8 A, 1-3 N)
SEC: 10-6 (7-1 H, 3-5 A)

Head Coach: Cuonzo Martin
19-15 in 1st year at Tennessee
80-56 in 4th year as a head coach

The Tennessee Volunteers went 19-15 (10-6 SEC) in their first season under head coach Cuonzo Martin. After being picked in the preseason to finish 11th in the SEC, the Vols posted 10 conference wins to tie for second place in the final standings. Tennessee earned the No. 2 seed in the SEC Tournament, and advanced to the second round of the NIT. Junior forward Jeronne Maymon (12.7 ppg, 8.1 rpg) earned second-team All-SEC honors from the AP and the league's head coaches, while freshman power forward Jarnell Stokes (9.6 ppg, 7.4 rpg) landed on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Both frontcourt standouts return for the Vols next season, as UT loses seniors Cameron Tatum (8.1 ppg, 4.1 rfg, 2.5 apg) and Renaldo Woolridge (4.3 ppg, 3.3 rpg), along with graduating walk-on Tyler Summitt and transferring guard Wes Washpun. Four of five starters are expected to return. The Vols also will welcome incoming wings D'Montre Edwards (Charleston, S.C.; Brevard Community College) and Derek Reese (Orlando, Fla.). Tennessee's 61.6 scoring defense in SEC play marked the program's best since 1969. By drawing 17,411 fans per game this season, Tennessee finished fifth nationally in regular-season home attendance for the seventh straight season. Tennessee faced an SEC-high nine ranked opponents during the regular season, and UT's best wins came against defending national champion UConn, Vanderbilt and Florida (twice).

VANDERBILT COMMODORES

OVERALL: 25-11 (13-5 H, 6-5 A, 6-1 N)
SEC: 10-6 (6-2 H, 4-4 A)

Head Coach: Kevin Stallings
261-159 in 13th year at Vanderbilt
384-222 in 19th year as a head coach

Vanderbilt advanced to the third round of the NCAA Championship with a 79-70 win over Harvard on March 15. The win snapped a three-game skid in the tournament, dating back to the 2007 season. Vanderbilt has advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive season, a program first. Vanderbilt now has an all-time record of 10-14 in the NCAA Tournament, while current head coach Kevin Stallings has a 6-8 overall record in the tournament. The Commodores sport the leading scorer and fourth-leading scorer in the SEC in John Jenkins (19.9) and Jeffery Taylor (16.1). Jenkins leads the nation in threes made with 3.8 per game. Jenkins and Taylor were both named to the All-SEC first team by the league's coaches this year. Taylor was also named to the All-Defensive team for the third consecutive season.
